

COMMUNITY SERVICE OFFICER PROGRAM

Introduction

The California State University Channel Islands Community Service Officer Program employs University students to assist the Police & Parking Services Department with various community related tasks. Employment is open to all CSUCI students who wish to develop their personal and professional skills. The CSUCI Police & Parking Service Department is an equal opportunity employer and does not discriminate on the basis of age, gender, disability, race, or national origin.

Mission

The mission of the Community Service Officer Program is to facilitate the academic process by providing a safe and secure environment in which to pursue academic excellence. Under direct supervision, students patrol all campus property performing escorts, security, parking enforcement, and various related administrative functions, thereby assisting the campus community, the general public and the Police Department. Our commitment to our Community Service Officer (CSO) program is based on a philosophy that we are:

- Enhancing Police & Parking services to the campus community
- Providing employment and practical experience to our students.
- Providing students with a service-based learning experience in community service and safety.
