April Events schedule

Star of the Week: Tim Allen

Vice President's Reports:

Tomorrow, Student Health Advisory meeting at 1:30

We still need to fill 11 scraps for Mary's Wish scrapbook; we need this by May 1st

Exit Evaluations, personal evaluation make appointment for week of April 21-25, it's a 30-45 minute process

Budget Update:

Re-allocating funds for co-sponsorship, picnic and BOM. It is looking like we are okay on funds right now.

Committee Reports:

Constitution meeting Wednesday from 10:30-11:30, 2 more meetings are scheduled, no meeting for week of Dolphin Days/BOM

Event Follow-Up:

LA Kings: Really fun! Kings won!! CI had its own group all with CI gear on; we sold all but 2 tickets. Suggestion for next time, allocate money for a bus.

Event Reports:

Discover CI- April 12th at the South Quad from 9am-12pm; please be there, since Chelsee, Melody and Josh will not be able to attend

Dolphin Days/BOM- It takes just a few hours out of your day to participate, please inform people in your major, and if you have any questions talk to Melody.

Block Party- we have some changes happening to block party, otherwise it is good to go.

Picnic- we want to have beach balls and beach mats to pass out.

High five to Erin for making an awesome poster! High five to Tim for booking/finishing bands!

Open Forum:

ASI meeting tomorrow to finish budget process.

March for Higher Education, April 21st, if you are interested in participating.

Study Abroad applications due May 1st, for Australia and New Zealand, and this is highly recommended.

Adjournment: 5:37
