

CAREERS IN STUDENT AFFAIRS MONTH

Presented By:

Jaimie Hoffman

Description

C SUCI's Division of Student Affairs provides Student Affairs professionals with the opportunity to share the value of a career in student affairs with undergraduate students by supporting the "National Careers in Student Affairs Month" (established by the National Association for College Personnel Administrators). Employees in the division are invited to support the program in the following ways: wear an "Ask Me About My Job" button to invite students to gain first hand knowledge of authentic experience in Student Affairs, encourage students to attend the "Careers in Student Affairs" session on campus, or the "Western Regional Careers in Student Affairs Day" held at a university in Southern California.

Objectives

Dr. Wm. Gregory Sawyer, Vice President for Student Affairs, speaking with students

- To provide opportunities for Student Affairs professionals to invest in the future of the profession.
- To encourage students to ask questions of student affairs professionals regarding their work experiences
- To provide students with a general understanding of the variety of positions that may fall within Student Affairs
- To provide students with a general understanding of the history of Student Affairs in higher education
- To educate students on the foundational philosophies and significant publications of the Student Affairs Profession
- To illuminate the various options available for graduate studies in Student Affairs

Careers in Student Affairs month

"No two days are ever exactly the same!"

Do you see yourself in Student Affairs?
• Would you like to continue to work on a college campus after graduation?
• Are you interested in the development of college students?
• Are you willing to help shape campus communities?

We are Student Affairs...
• Dedicated to students
• Committed to diversity
• Skilled in teaching
• Constantly learning
• Striving to make a difference!

Student Affairs professionals have found exciting career options and opportunities that lead to earning a good living, working on a college campus and making a difference in the lives of students! Some of the many opportunities in Student Affairs include: advising, counseling, recruiting, supervising, event planning and coordination, mentoring, assessing and evaluating, just to name a few.

TO LEARN MORE:

1. Careers in Student Affairs, Wednesday, October 18, 5pm—6:30pm @ Bell Tower Conference Room #1568
2. Western Regional Careers in Student Affairs Day held at Cal State Fullerton on October 27, 2006
3. Ask a Student Affairs professional about their job

For more information, please contact Jaimie Hoffman (909) 437-3141, jaimie.hoffman@suci.edu

The on campus session provides students with the foundational philosophies of Student Affairs, the diverse career options presented to Student Affairs professionals and graduate school resources. Through a panel discussion, students have the opportunity to ask questions of individuals with extensive experiences in areas represented in Student Affairs. The panel consists of administrators that have selected a career in Student Affairs and/or spent a significant amount of time in the profession. In 2006, the panelists were: Dr.

Wm. Gregory Sawyer, Vice President for Student Affairs; Dr. Therese Eyer mann, Special Assistant to the President; Dr. George Morten, Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs, Assessment and Co-curricular Education; and Jane Sweetland, Dean of Enrollment Services.

Future Careers in Student Affairs month activities will include opportunities for job shadowing, visits to other campuses, mentoring, a departmental fair and panelists from other institutions in the on campus session.

Dr. George Morten, Asst. Vice President of Student Affairs Assessment and Co-Curricular Education, speaking with a student