

In this issue:

Winter OLLIFILM Festival continues on Jan. 17
Acclaimed performance artist to lead workshop Jan. 28 to Feb. 2
CSUCI art graduate, student part of Ventura public art project

wavelength

Email, Internet access may be temporarily unavailable

The Information Technology office will perform scheduled maintenance to the computer system beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 12. Work should be completed by 12 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 13. During the maintenance it is possible access to campus email and Internet might be unavailable. Incoming mail will be queued and delivered when the maintenance is complete.

For more information, contact Jess Paredes, manager IT User Services, ext. 8559 or IT Help Desk, ext. 8552.

Water shut-off set for Jan. 13

Water service to a small portion of campus will be shut down from 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 13. The shut down is necessary for the project that will expand the Islands Café. The shut down will affect the following buildings: John Spoor Broome Library, Malibu Hall, Bell Tower East (area which fronts on University Drive and includes Student Life offices) and Topanga Hall.

For more information, contact Bob Sturgeon, lead plumber, ext. 8411.

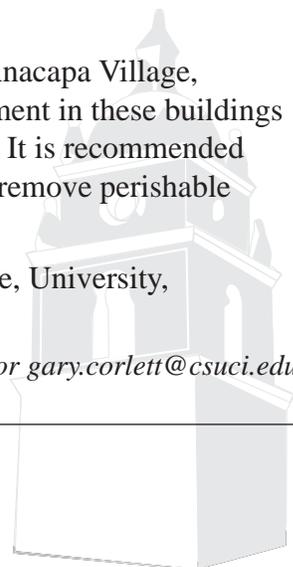

Power service to be suspended for south campus

Beginning at 6 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 12, power supply to south campus – buildings south of Los Angeles Avenue – will be shut down. The scheduled outage is necessary to replace switchgear on University Drive and Ventura Street. Power service will resume at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Jan. 14.

The following buildings will be impacted by the outage: Bell Tower, Bell Tower West, Anacapa Village, Arroyo, Malibu, Ojai, Topanga and Lindero halls. It is necessary that all electrical equipment in these buildings – such as computers, copiers, radios, refrigerators, etc. – be shut down during the outage. It is recommended that sensitive electronics be unplugged to prevent damage when power is restored. Also, remove perishable items from any refrigerators.

Buildings not affected by the outage include Public Safety, University Glen housing, Sage, University, Manzanita, Chaparral and Aliso halls.

For more information, contact Gary Corlett, interim associate director OPC, ext. 8930 or gary.corlett@csuci.edu

Islands Café hours temporarily changed

Following are temporary changes to the Islands Café hours of operation:

Jan. 12 to 19 – 7:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. (closed Saturday, Jan. 13 and Sunday, Jan. 14)

Jan. 15 – Closed

Jan. 20 and 21 – 11:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Jan. 22 – 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. (regular hours)

Winter OLLIFILM Festival continues on Jan. 17

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute and the CSU Channel Islands Library is hosting the winter OLLIFILM Festival. The next film presentation is Wednesday, Jan. 17 and will feature “Bringing Up Baby” (1938) starring Cary Grant and Kathryn Hepburn. The theme of the film series is “Masters of all they convey: The broad range of Howard Hawks and Billy Wilder.” The festival began Jan. 10 with a screening of “Scarface” (1932).

All films will be shown from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Library Collaboratory, BT 1302. The schedule includes: Jan. 24 “Red River” (1948); Feb. 7 “Double Indemnity” (1944); Feb. 14 “Sunset Boulevard” (1950); Feb. 28 “Some Like it Hot” (1959).

There are also two concerts scheduled to take place (in the Library Collaboratory) as part of the festival. The Channel Islands String Quartet will perform music from the Baroque period from 12 to 1 p.m. on Jan. 31. The group will play again on Feb. 21 from 12 to 1 p.m. and perform selections from Shostakovich and more.

Admission is free for the movies and concerts.

For more information contact Marty Kaplan, OLLI director, ext. 8583 or Amy Wallace, associate professor and librarian, ext. 8911.

Acclaimed performance artist to lead workshop Jan. 28 to Feb. 2

The CSUCI Performing Arts Program and Instructionally Related Activities have scheduled Tim Miller, an internationally acclaimed performance artist, for an intensive residency. Miller will lead a student performance workshop beginning Sunday, Jan. 28. His visit will conclude at 8 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 2 with a performance including those students who participated in the workshop. He also will be visiting some classes.

Miller will perform his solo piece “Glory Box” at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Jan. 31. Tickets are available the night of the performance and are free for CSUCI students with identification, $10 for faculty and staff and $15 for the general public. Both the student performance and Miller’s “Glory Box” performance will be held in Malibu Hall 100.

Miller has taught performance in the theater department at University California Los Angeles and the dance program at Cal State Los Angeles.

For more information about Tim Miller and the performance workshop, contact Dr. Catherine Scott Burriss, assistant professor of performing arts, ext. 3126 or catherine.burriss@csuci.edu

CSUCI art graduate, student part of Ventura public art project

A graduate and a current student of California State University Channel Islands are two of 12 professional artists, schools, and community organizations selected by the Public Art Commission of Ventura County to participate in The Streetscape Mural Project.

continued on next page

Tobie Roach, a 2005 graduate who majored in art, and Aaron Benner, a senior majoring in art, are part of the group of artists commissioned to paint large murals for display in bus shelters from the east end of Ventura to the west side. Murals will reflect the broad range of artistic styles in our community and represent artists' interpretations of Ventura's landscape, rich history and culture. The works will be installed in bus shelters in March 2007.

New faces

There are several new staff members at CSUCI. The following people came aboard in October, November and December 2006: Brian Berry, procurement analyst, Procurement & Support Services; Amber Weir, events coordinator, Dean's Office; John Jacobsen, assistant director, logistical services, Logistical Services; Marisa Thigpen, associate director, Extended Education; Alan Pasternak, coordinator for personal counseling, Personal Counseling; Cory Landers, analyst programmer, Information Technology Service; Kristin Hayes, administration support, disability accommodation services, Disability Accommodations; Gene Lai, police officer, Police; Michael Morris, lieutenant, Police; Daniel Haws, parking officer, Transportation and Parking; Ceal Potts, communication & publication specialist, Communications & Marketing.

Around Campus

Alumni, business leaders unite

In December, members of the Business & Technology Partnership attended the Alumni & Friends Association's Networking Skills Reception at University hall. Mel Sheeler, CEO of Sheeler Moving and Storage, (inset photo) was the guest speaker for the event. He offered tips about how to feel confident in a business networking environment. Following Sheeler's presentation, alumni were paired with a Business & Technology Partnership mentor to network at the Annual B&TP Holiday Mixer. From left to right: Sheeler, Yvette Bocz (2002), Fleming Jones (B&TP Mentor), David Garcia (2006), Hiromi Arai (student), Allen Horwitz (B&TP Mentor), Elisabeth Freeman (2006), Tariq Mufti (B&TP Mentor), Panda Kroll (B&TP Mentor) and Lupita Gutierrez (2005).

Share your news through wavelength

Welcome back to all faculty and staff! This is the first edition of wavelength for 2007. As activity on campus picks up, any news items, updates on campus developments and activities, or information you would like share throughout campus should be sent to Ceal Potts in Communications & Marketing (cecilia.potts@csuci.edu or ext. 8940).

As a reminder, wavelength is sent out every other week on Fridays. Any items should be submitted by 5 p.m. Wednesday prior to publication. January and February publication dates are as follow: 1/26; 2/9; 2/23.