

President's Courtyard to Be Dedicated

WHO:

- CSUCI President Richard R. Rush
- President's Courtyard Supporters
- Steve Blois, CSUCI Foundation Board member who arranged for labor and materials.
- Pat Richards, former CSUCI Foundation Board member, and John Broome, Jr., CSUCI Advisory Board member, who were instrumental in the creation and completion of the courtyard.
- Dignitaries, local elected officials
- Members of the CSUCI Foundation Board
- CSUCI students, faculty, and staff

WHEN: Monday, September 26, 4:30 - 6 p.m.

WHERE: President's Courtyard, Administration Building, California State University Channel Islands. Follow event signs to parking.

WHAT: The dedication of the President's Courtyard, acknowledging those who were instrumental in its design and construction. Through a Sunset magazine courtyard competition, designs for four California State University Channel Islands courtyards were selected. The first of these to be completed is the President's Courtyard located in the center of the University's Administration Building. A ceremony will be held to dedicate the courtyard and to acknowledge its many contributors and supporters.