

CSUCI to Host 'Discover CI' Day April 18

Camarillo, Calif., Apr. 7, 2009 - Students admitted for the fall 2009 semester at California State University Channel Islands, their families, as well as students who have applied to the University are invited to attend 'Discover CI' on Saturday, April 18, 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. 'Discover CI' is a yearly event designed to assist students in learning more about CSUCI.

Activities during the event will include information sessions from student services and faculty representatives on topics such as completing the admission process, academic advising, student housing, financial aid, and academic programs. Campus tours and a University Marketplace (showcasing various student clubs and organizations), campus service departments, and all of the academic majors will be available. Current students, campus administrators and community service organizations participate as well. More than 2,000 are expected to attend this event.

Parking is complimentary and available on campus; however, participants are encouraged to use the parking available at the Camarillo Metrolink Station. Complimentary transportation to and from the campus will be provided on the CSUCI VISTA bus.

For more information about the event contact the Recruitment office at CSUCI, 805-437-8520 or visit <http://www.csuci.edu/discoverci/>.

For media inquiries about this event contact Nancy Covarrubias Gill, Director of Communication & Marketing at CSUCI, 805-437-8456 or nancy.gill@csuci.edu.
