

SOUL OF A CITIZEN

HOW CAN YOU MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD AND YOUR ACTIONS COUNT?

Paul Rogat Loeb explores how to act on our deepest beliefs—and make a difference despite all the obstacles. He describes:

- What gets people—especially students—involved in working for change
- What stops us from becoming involved
- How community involvement can give us a powerful sense of connection and purpose, nurturing hope in a time of fear
- How we can avoid burning out in exhaustion, and keep on for the long haul

"An essential book for anyone who wants to work for change." —HOWARD ZINN

"A beautiful and morally transcendent work that speaks directly to the heart. Loeb is a personal hero of mine."
—JONATHAN KOZOL

"Brimms with stirring stories of everyday heroes who saw something wrong, heeded the voice of their conscience, gathered support and made a difference."
—PHILADELPHIA INQUIRER

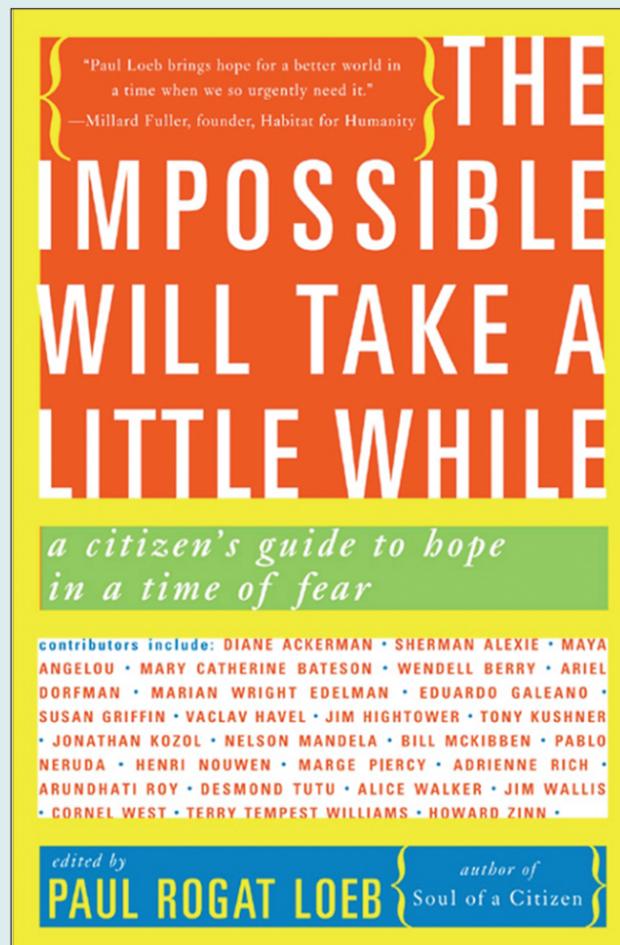

"Paul Loeb brings hope for a better world in a time when we so urgently need it."

—MILLARD FULLER, FOUNDER, HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

"The voices Loeb finds demonstrate that courage can be another name for love."

—ALICE WALKER

"I regard Loeb as something of a national treasure." —SUSAN SONTAG

"Paul is part of what's good about this world. I admire his work very much. This book can even make one hopeful about the future despite so many signs to the contrary."

—BILL MOYERS

"Hopeful, inspiring, and motivating... Required reading for us all." —SIERRA CLUB MAGAZINE

"This might possibly be the most important collection of stories and essays you will ever read."
