

INSIDE LEISURE VILLAGE

Vol. 32 No. 3

An Active Senior Community

Santa Rosa Road, Camarillo, California

March 4, 2011

Mayor to speak at Current Events Forum

On March 18, at 7 p.m. in the AR, Camarillo Mayor Mike Morgan will present, "The State of the City."

The city manager, finance director and other members of the City Council will be on the panel.

The Leisure Village Current Issues Forum was established more than 20 years ago to provide nonpartisan information on issues important to the residents of Leisure Village. We are a large community within the city of Camarillo, and the mayor and City Council want us to be informed.

Possible subjects of interest will be flood insurance issues, growth in Camarillo, traffic problems and city finances.

Questions and answers will follow the presentation.

Maximum support for this event will be appreciated by the mayor and City Council. They have a strong desire to inform our community.

Thank you!

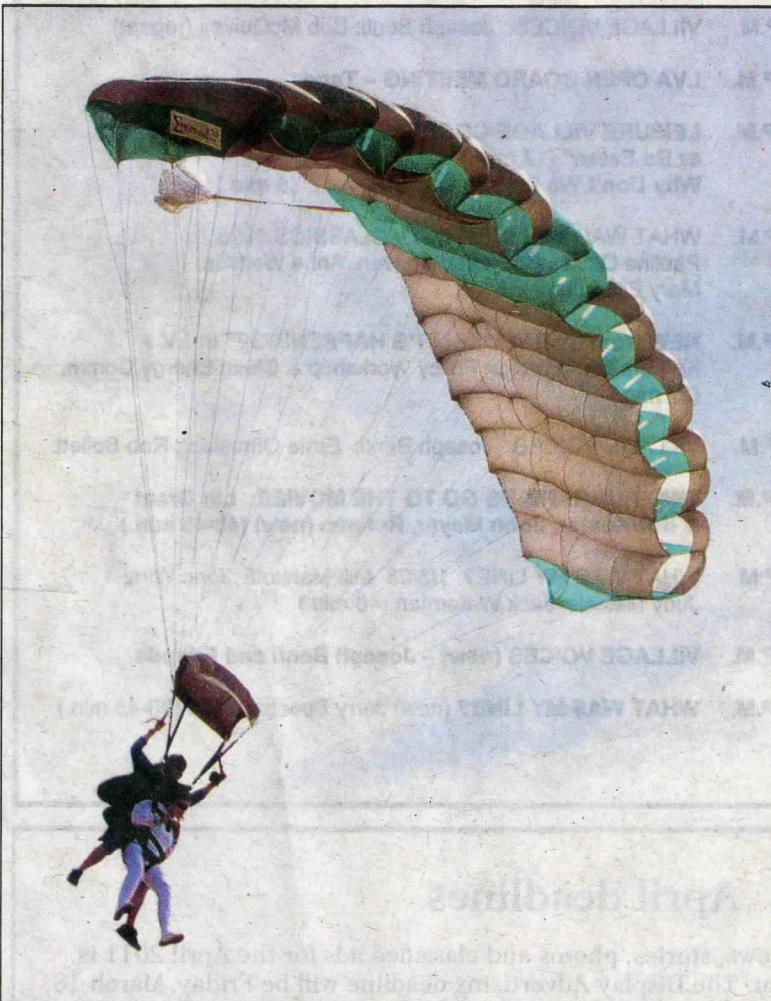

This edition is dedicated to Super Seniors, especially Ginny Sims, who's featured on Page 1 because she celebrated her 90th birthday by skydiving, and the seven members of the Village Bowling League, featured on Page 13, who still bowl several times a week even though they are well into their 90s. One member, Ernie Slabotsky, is 96 years old! All these Super Seniors are an inspiration to us all! Keep it up!

Don't forget Showtyme's "The Platters Live" on Sunday, March 13, at 2 p.m. in the AR. Tickets are $10 for members and $13 for non-members.

On a sadder note, the Village bids farewell to the Happy Hoofers, who are hanging up their spurs after nearly a quarter of a century. See Page 2.

Thinking of selling your Village home? Be sure you know the association rules. See Page 6.

Don't forget St. Patrick's Day is March 17! As a reminder, see Page 23.

Stepping out at 90

By Patty Ecker

When Ginny Sims stepped out to celebrate her 90th birthday on Feb. 5, her friends and family gasped. That first step was out of an airplane 10,000 feet above Camarillo. Ginny chose to skydive to mark the day!

Eight decades of life is nothing to ignore, and she wanted to do something special. A magazine ad caught her eye: Skydiving! That's it, decided this longtime LV resident. She never looked back.

The adventure began at Camarillo Airport at Skydive Coastal Company, where Ginny was strapped into a harness with her instructor Brendon (who has 6,800 jumps to his credit) and boarded the airplane. At an altitude of two miles, the door opened, and they stepped out into a 120 mph freefall.

"I put my head up and my arms out," Ginny said. They dropped away from the plane for 30 seconds. The chute opened at 5,000 feet, and they floated above Camarillo,

Please see JUMP on 7

Happy Hoofers goes off into sunset after 24 years

By Ida Zeller, V. 30

As the saying goes, "All good things must come to an end." Well, I am saddened to say the time has come for the Hoofers to hang up their dancing shoes and pursue other activities.

Our group has had difficulty getting new members to join. We've had six dancers for some time now, and by April we would be down to four. It's a far cry from the 12 lovely ladies who made up the Happy Hoofers 18 years ago when I joined, and considerably less than the two groups (beginners and advanced) of 24 years ago.

It was a wonderful experience for me, and I owe it all to the now-deceased Helen Gold, who gave this 65-year-old senior tap lessons in her garage for one year.

Thank you all for letting us entertain you these many years. So long for now.

Pet Corner: Check that breath

By Lorraine Watson
(Second in an occasional series)

Have you smelled your pet's breath lately? Some of you may be in for an unpleasant surprise.

Bad breath can indicate disease of the gums and teeth, and these problems can lead to mouth pain and infection in other parts of the body. Do your part to keep your pet's mouth clean and healthy. This will save you a lot of money in the long run. Consider brushing your pet's teeth daily.

If your pet allows you to touch the inside of its mouth, you will probably be able to brush its teeth, but if your pet doesn't like you around its mouth, do not force the issue.

You can start with a soft cloth and pet toothpaste. Slowly graduate to a finger toothbrush or regular pet toothbrush. Also, there are many brands of tartar control treats on the market and at the veterinary clinic that aid in good oral hygiene.

— Lorraine Watson is a doctor of veterinary medicine practicing in Thousand Oaks.

Association rules can make Village sale tricky proposition

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate Inc.

If and when you consider selling your home in Leisure Village, our Leisure Village Association has some tips that you should know before you list your property.

The primary goal of our Association and the Building & Grounds Committee, as well as the Architectural Committee, is the safety and appearance of the Village.

Any changes made to the outside of our homes requires a permit.

Any structural change requires a City of Camarillo building permit.

For wood fences that abut Leisure Village Drive or Mountain View Drive, upon sale of the residence, our Association rules require that the fence must be replaced or money will be held in escrow for no more than 90 days after the close of escrow, at which time the buyer must complete the installation of the new replaced fence.

The only approved planter bed edging is concrete or brick in mortar.

Indoor-outdoor carpet is no longer allowed at front entrances, only in enclosed patios with a proper architectural permit.

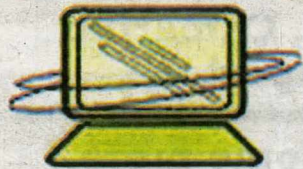

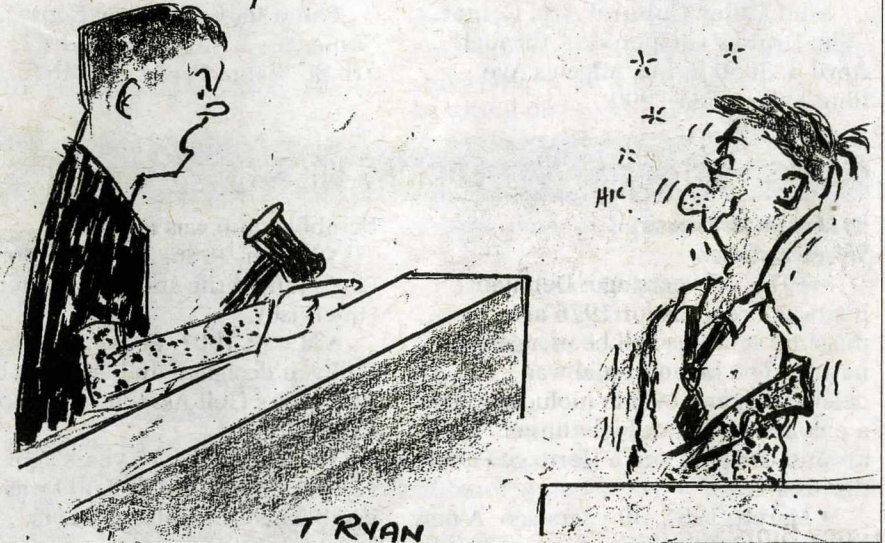

All improvements on the property are checked to be sure that permits are on file. If missing, the owner or agent must obtain one.

Agents who are familiar with Leisure Village can be very helpful and possibly save you time and money.

Jump creates happy birthday

Leisure Village and Somis for about five minutes.

"It was beautiful," she recalls.

As Brendon recorded the jump on video, they drifted gently toward the landing point in a Somis field where a dozen fans and family watched the descent. The touchdown was perfect: Ginny and Brendon walked to a stop. The welcome group cheered.

"I did it!" shouted the 90-year-old skydiver. "What a thrill! I never felt scared."

Ginny Sims describes herself as "always a daredevil since I first got roller skates at age six."

She was an aviation mechanic in the Navy during World War II and a race car driver in the 1950s and '60s.

"The fastest I ever drove was 163.4 mph," she laughs. For that feat, Ginny was awarded a trophy as the Fastest Woman of 1959 by the Southern California Sports Car Club.

I was up in the air
— so to speak — for days afterward.

— Ginny Sims

A resident of Leisure Village for 16 years, Ginny Sims is busy with the Writers Club, traveling and enjoying her family. Her grandson was at the front of the crowd taking pictures of her birthday skydive. "It was marvelous, breathtaking, indescribable," she said later. "I was up in the air — so to speak — for days afterward."

She thinks once is probably enough for jumping out of airplanes. But it's never too soon to be thinking about the next birthday celebration.

Done in a day. Beautiful for life.

Womens Club

By Rita Linsey

The Razzmatappers, a wonderful tap dance troupe, entertained the Women's Club and residents this month. The Razzmatappers' repertoire includes upbeat tap routines using their favorite music from Broadway shows of the 1930s, 40s, 50s, 60s and 70s. Their members include performers who have appeared on Broadway, TV, variety acts and dance competitions.

Coming up on April 7 at 1:30 p.m. in the AR, Richard Weiss will perform many beloved songs for the Women's Club. His most recent credits include being musical director for the Sherman Brothers' Musical Dawgs, whose works include "Mary Poppins," "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang," "Bedknobs and Broomsticks" and many other Disney movies. Richard also worked with Opera Santa Barbara as assistant director on productions of "Carmen," "Don Giovanni," "Madame Butterfly" and others.

Mark your calendars for the Women's Club May 5 Bingo event and June 2 for our annual fashion show.

Writers Club

By Lois Keeler

We had 18 members in our fold on Monday. Of course, many people wrote about Valentine's Day. We are still seeing new members in our group, and their stories are so welcome. Ginny Sims gave us her account of her recent parachute jump, which you can read about on Page 1. What a lady! This was on her 90th birthday. Her life has been one big accomplishment, and our hat is off to her. She writes interesting stories, too. Look us up. We will certainly welcome you, and we think you will like us.

The Annual Party will be held on April 7. The evening's entertainment will be provided by Leisure Village resident and board member Don Marquardt. It will be a one-man show about the history of Central Park. Tickets for this event may be purchased from Florenz Sklarz at 482-5001 or Lucy Fiore at 482-8393. The price is $10 per person.

LV Bowling

By Marty Simons

After taking the Friday following Thanksgiving off to let the turkey digest, action resumed on Week 12. Judging by the quality of the bowling, the week off did several people a lot of good.

Leonard Belcher had a 232, Ray

Cass a 227, Bob McQuivey a 207, Art Titen a 202 and Marty Simons a 200. Side pot winners were Jerry Rosen, Leonard Belcher and Ray Cass for the men, and Helen Koehn, Joyce Snider and Cathy Friedman for the ladies.

Week 13 saw Dennis Durand with a 227 (on his way to a 600 scratch series), Irv Cohen with a 210 and Alan Singer a 200. Side pot winners were Al Schuster, Irv Cohen and Dennis Durand for the men, and Louise Covington, Sharon Hahn and Shirley McQuivey for the ladies.

Pins were still falling in Week 14 with Dennis Durand's 209, Lucy Fiore with a 203 (atta girl Lucy) and Stan Feldman with a 200. Side pot winners were Jerry Rosen, Dennis Durand and Stan Feldman for the men, and Lucy Fiore, Betty Herrmann and Sharon Hahn for the ladies.

Following a two-week holiday break, we resumed with Week 15 and saw Ray Cass with a 220, Richard Cato a 210, Art Titen a 204 and Irv Cohen a 201. Side pot winners were Irv Cohen, Ted Ryan and Ray Cass

Our March movie is a standout. We're showing "The Social Network." By March 15 we will already know which was the Academy Award's Best Picture of the Year and this one is certainly one of the best! I'm sure everyone knows it's the story of the

Our Manipulators are still at it in the Annex on March 22. It's a fun game and easy to learn. Come join them!

Camera Club's winners for February

By Marion Green

At our February meeting, President Jerry Spector shared a letter from Bob Scheaffer, general manager of Leisure Village, thanking the Camera Club for its generous donation of the video picture frame placed at the end of the hall which is now enjoyed by all.

We welcomed Robert Field, a returning judge to our February competition meeting. Members entered 78 pictures. In addition to judging, Robert was kind enough to bring his personal photography calendars featuring 12 months of his outstanding photos, which he awarded to each first-place winner.

The Assigned category was Architecture, Doors/Windows. First place was won by Bob Sandusky, second was given

to Jerry Spector and third was awarded to Judy Spector. Honorable Mentions were won by Jack Caldwell and Rita Linsey

In the Open category,

Honorable Mentions went to Judy Spector and Jack Caldwell. First place was won by Jean Kohut, second went to Verna Cryder and Don Treadwell took third place.

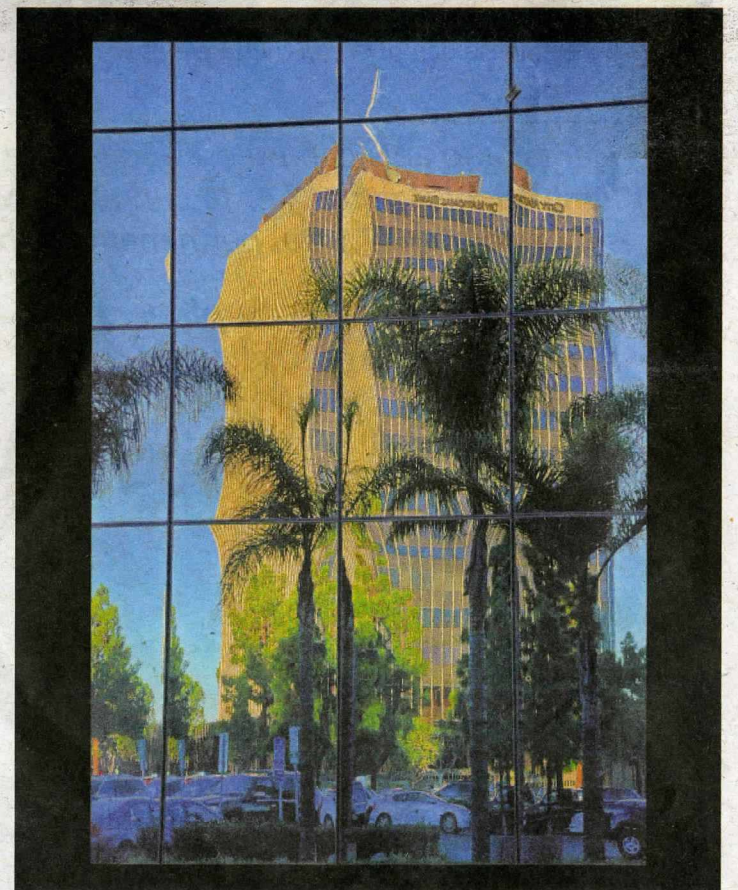

For the Creative category, first-place winner was Marlene Votion, second place was Betty Murray, and the third-place ribbon was given to Bob Sandusky. Honorable Mention ribbons were awarded to Rita Linsey and Jerry Spector.

We encourage everyone to come to our meetings held on the first and third Wednesday of each month at 7 p.m.

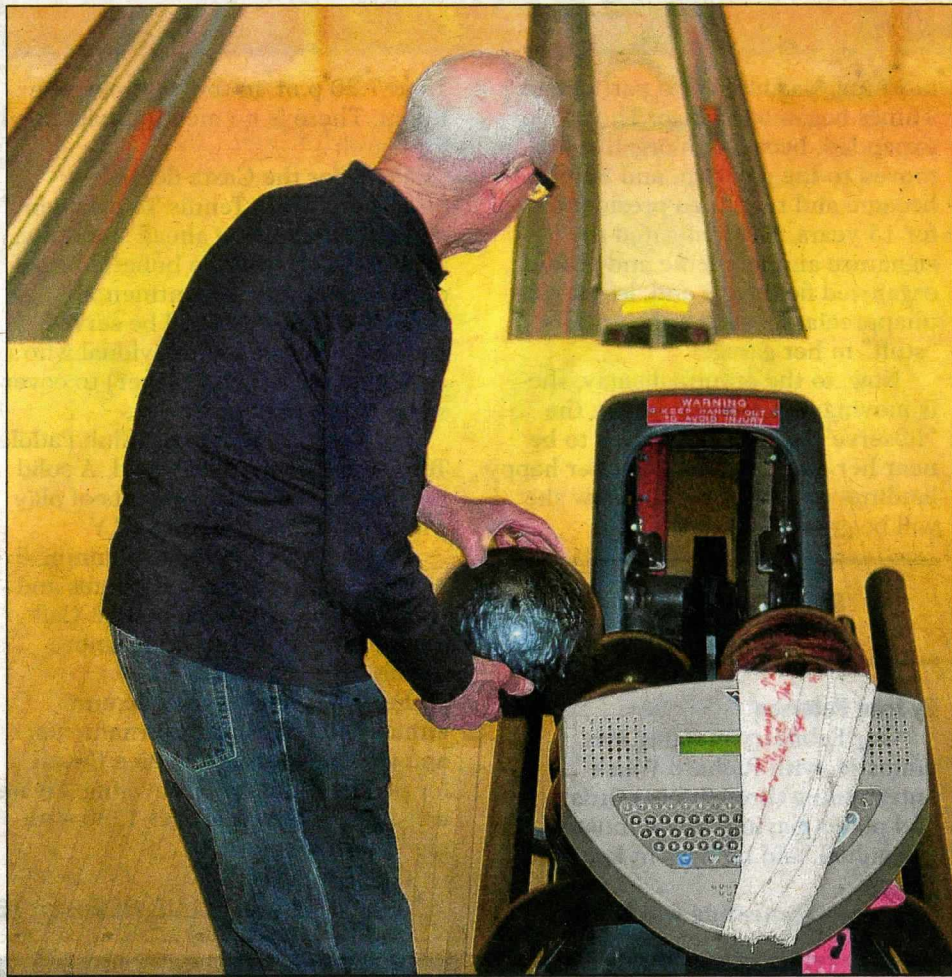

Our competition meeting is on the first Wednesday, and our March assigned category will be Different Angles.

It promises to be a very interesting subject and we encourage all to join us.

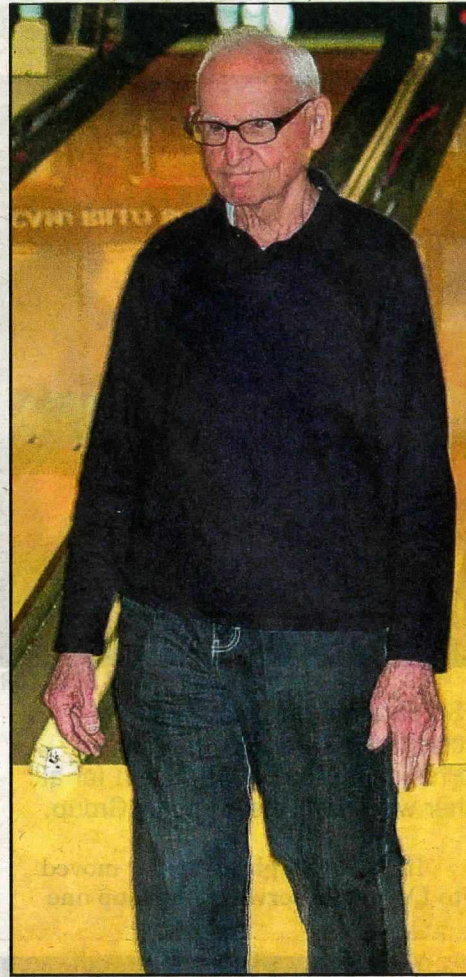

Refreshments will be served.

Taking first place in the Assigned Category of Doors and Windows was Bob Sandusky's "Window View."

Jerry Schneider is one of seven members of the LV Bowling Club older than 90.

7 Super Seniors score strikes

By Marty Simons

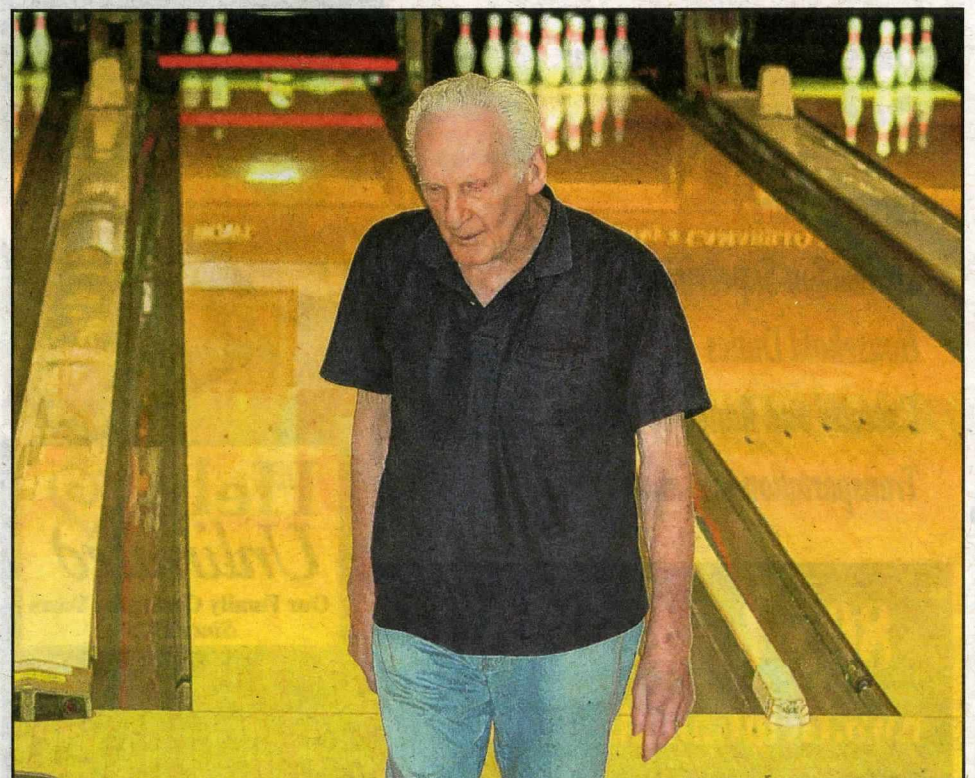

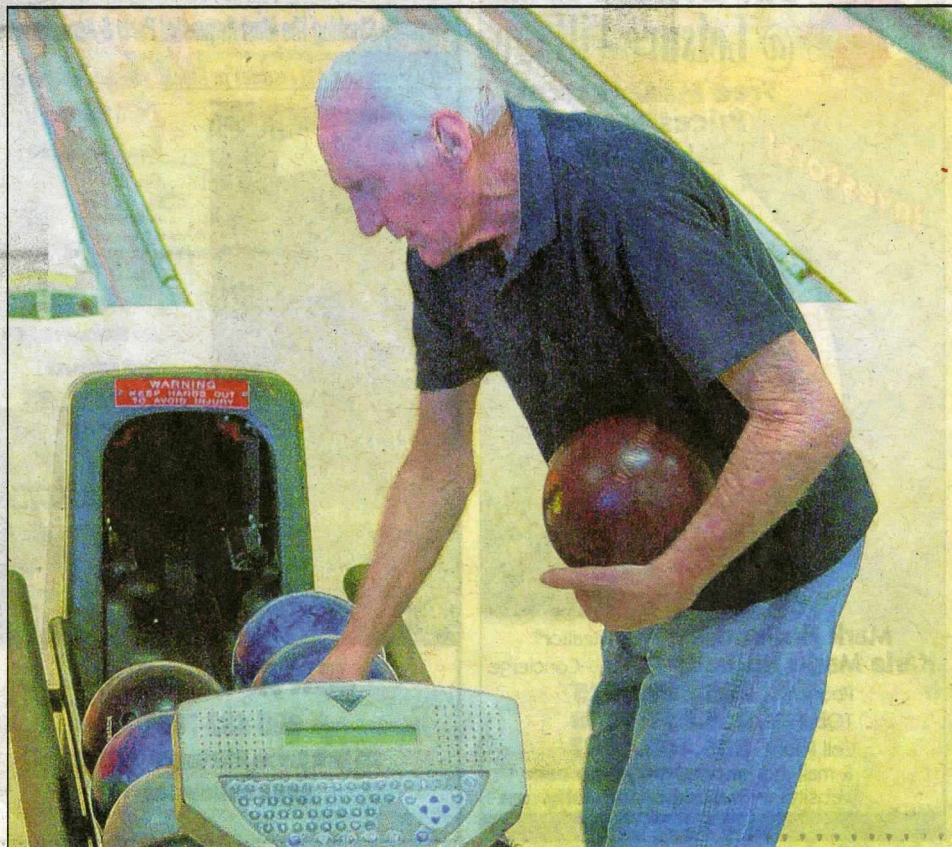

On Jan. 28, Bill Fox became the seventh member of the LV Bowling League to turn 90. The Fox family provided a plethora of goodies for the bowlers to celebrate the occasion.

The day before, Jerry Schneider turned 95. He's the second oldest, with Ernie Slabotsky's 96 topping them all. The other 90-plus bowlers are, in alphabetical order, Ray Cass, Joan Johnson, Walter Maich and Shirley McQuivey.

Most of these Super Seniors bowl from two to five and sometimes six days a week.

Need an inspiration to get out of bed in the morning? Just think of these remarkable folks. When I first joined the league in 2006, I looked around and said to myself (yes, I talk to myself too), "God willing, I can do this for another 20 years."

These wonderful people are my heroes, and they epitomize the fact that Leisure Village is an active senior citizen community. Come on down to Camarillo Bowl on a Friday morning and watch our Super Seniors in action.

Exercise Group

By Millie Seidman-

The Exercise Group began with six Villagers bending and stretching in the open air near where the ham radio station is now.

Shiphrah Maller receives a certificate from Exercise Group President Morris Rubinstein for all her work with the Exercise Group.

In 1986, Shiphrah Maller moved to LV and, observing the group one morning, was invited to participate. Things began to change: The group expanded, became an organized club, moved to the pavilion, and Shiphrah became and remained president for 15 years. She instigated the signature annual picnic and potluck, organized field trips and, lest it go unappreciated, stored the group's "stuff" in her garage!

Now, to the group's dismay, she is moving to assisted living at the "Reserve" in Thousand Oaks to be near her daughter. We wish her happy landings and want her to know she will be greatly missed.

Racquet Club

By John Peterson

Our February meeting was fantastic, with Richard Weiss entertaining through his words and piano playing. He's a must-see individual, and he lives in Leisure Village.

Our next meeting will be April 13 at 7:30 p.m. in the Multipurpose Room. There is no meeting scheduled for March.

Plans for the Casta del Sol interclub Paddle Tennis Tournament on April 2 are going ahead smoothly. Sign up to play on the bulletin board outside of courts. A continental breakfast and lunch will be served with a $5 charge per individual who's eating (player or non-player) to cover some of the cost.

On Feb. 19, a Racquet Club Paddle Tennis tournament was held. A solid turnout signed up and results of play will be in the next issue of ILV.

Pickle-Ball players are planning to visit other Ventura county clubs and compete and enjoy the action. Call Zack Taylor at 482-1065 for more details.

Future activities include our annual picnic in July, tournaments and a possible trip to Venice Beach for paddle tennis and bicycling. Please call John Peterson at 388-1230 with any questions.

Come join the fun.

The Mavericks

By Margo Secia

We had our always popular "Cash In The Attic" night in February. A big thank you to all who brought their treasures to the auction and, hopefully went home with some new treasures. This night always brings so much fun and laughter and, of course, the desserts were enjoyed by everyone.

We received so many great comments regarding the fantastic music "Willie and The Boys" played for our dancing and listening pleasure at our January Winter Ball that we are bringing them back for our meeting this month on Friday, March 25, at 7 p.m. in the AR. The price is $6 per person and will be collected at the door. Please bring a dessert to be shared and, as always, BYOB. Coffee, tea and water will be provided. We hope everyone will come with their dancing shoes on to enjoy some wonderful music.

Please mark your calendar for the return of Casino Night on Friday, April 22, at 7 p.m. in the AR. Casino Knights will be providing the game tables and dealers.

Tickets for Casino Night will be on sale soon on a first come, first served basis and can be purchased from any board member or by calling President Joe Miller at 383-0715 or Membership Chairman Sharon O'Connor at 389-6834.

Jazzercise

By Bettie Twa

Wow, here is is March already! Spring is getting closer by the minute and aren't we ready for that! How about greeting spring with a new beginning of getting fit for summer and the rest of your life? Our Lite Jazzercise class could be the perfect answer for you.

We meet every Monday, Wednesday and Friday in the AR from 9 to 10 a.m. Our instructor, Renee, is an excellent instructor with many years of experience. We cover all aspects of exercise in her classes. She gives us everything from warm-up to cool-down with a nice lite aerobic workout to some fun music with friends and neighbors. There have been many success stories in our group that include weight loss, lowering of blood pressure and strengthening of bone density.

Hope to see you soon!

Billiard Club

The 14.1 continuous pool tournament provided much excitement for the players and spectators alike.

Bill Foeller won first place in the SA group, Jack Quinn got second and Ed Callahan earned third.

Janice Runnels is first in the A group, Lew King holds second and Jeanne White has third place.

In the B group, Pat Gunning holds first place, Wilma Hutson is second and Gary McGraw came in third.

The Thursday social nights are a great hit, and the new gas grill is fired up (weather permitting) to be used by club members that want to bring their own food to be cooked on the grill.

Thank you cards, signed by club members, were presented to Bill Foeller and John Wirtz at the February meeting. Also, $50 Aloha

Steak House gift cards and some cash were in each of their cards. Thanks to Bill and John for their efforts in making our club an exciting club.

Saturday Night Dance

By Howard Koehn

March should be a great month for dancing, starting with The Upper Hand on March 5. They have proven to be quite popular and will play anything you want to hear. So you can't use the excuse that you don't like the song selection.

March 12 is our Mardi Gras Dance, and what could be better than having the Rhythm Kings to play for a party like that. The "Saints" won't come marching in, but I'll bet our "ladies of the Night," led by Andrea, will. I know they will have a bunch of beads with them, but I have no idea what you will have to do to get them. Guess you will have to show up to find out.

March ends with the Dick Parent Trio on March 26. They have a great band and will also play any of your requests. I checked, and there is nothing else going on in California that night, so you might as well come and dance the night away.

As always BYOB, but punch, coffee, popcorn and even the water is free. See you there!

LV Musicians

By Anne Wolfson

The LV Musicians are musicians who are Leisure Village residents that enjoy playing musical instruments to entertain other LV residents.

Our performers were:

Sam Arousty, who, after not playing his harmonica for 50 years, gave a great performance. Sam had recently broken his hand and was unable to play his horn.

John Kula, who is 90-some years old, played his violin and did a great job.

Don Stevens, accompanied by Stan Vansant on piano; played his trombone.

Libby Pierce played her favorite pieces on the piano.

Barbara Rosenberg, who hadn't joined us in awhile, played her favorite piano pieces.

Art Ackerman, a newcomer, played his keyboard and sang several songs.

Dick Guttman, our organizer, played several rousing songs on the organ.

Richard Weiss, who has joined our Village, coming from starring in Las Vegas, played and explained some classical pieces.

Last came Stan Vansant, who had accompanied Sam and John and Don, to play the piano plus his woodwinds and flute, accompanied by his own accompaniment.

It was a wonderful evening, and all enjoyed the music and look forward to the next meeting in March. Watch LVTV for the next date.

Mens Golf

By Mannie Abbate

Monthly meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month in the MPR at 2 p.m. Pre-meeting refreshments are served at 1:30 p.m. Come early for bagels, cookies, coffee, wine or punch and chat with the members. Have a piece of cake when we get a hole in one. Get 50/50 tickets for a drawing at the end of the meeting.

We play at Buenaventura Golf Course on Wednesday, March 9, and at Olivas Links on April 21. A change in the schedule for our Club Championship on May 11 had to be made. It will be played at Sterling Hills Golf Course instead of Buenaventura. Check the bulletin board at the course and your e-mail for fees for all the future tournament dates.

the AR was a great success. We had the biggest turnout ever.

It's time to think about next year's Board of Directors. Contact the Nominating Committee if you would like to be considered for a position.

Watch for the signs at the course and LVTV (Channel 25 or 995).

Computer Club

By Barbara Krohta

The quarterly meeting will be held Friday, March 11, at 10 a.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room. Scott Bickford of iPC Computers will give a presentation on the many uses of those mysterious little storage devices called flash drives or thumb drives, such as keeping medical and prescription documents on them to take to your doctors. Scott will also talk about how to save information and pictures to a flash drive and how to access photos you've put on the drive.

As usual, coffee, tea and cookies will be served, and don't forget to bring your $7 dues for 2011 if you haven't already paid.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop "Elves" enjoy being able to repair items for residents and help with projects for the Village. They continue to offer free repair service for household items Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon.

The Woodshop is one of the many recreation facilities in LV and is available to residents with woodworking experience, provided they can demonstrate the ability to operate power equipment safely. Residents interested in becoming a shop key holder should contact a Woodshop Committee member for an appointment to be checked out on the equipment.

Music Appreciation

By Josette Dietrich

Come and join us every first and third Friday at 10 a.m. in the MPR to listen to great classical music, concerts, films, arias and more. You will start your day on a great "note."

On Feb. 4 we enjoyed a film of "The Artistry of Bel Canto." What an incredible experience we had! On Feb. 18, Bob Leventhal presented a film of an "All Mozart" program from Salzburg.

Watch LVTV for future programs.

subtitles and charming music, was a hit with our members. We will have another photo session in the future.

Our speaker was Jerry Sortomme, who heads our Village Residential Landscape Committee. He spoke on plants that are poisonous to pets. We need to remember that small amounts of some plants can be tolerated, but when we have a small dog it doesn't take much to cause stomach upset. He said most animals are smart enough to stay away from poisonous plants because plants have a bad taste.

Regarding human food, never give a dog chocolate because that can be fatal. Be very careful about giving a dog food that contains onions, garlic (one clove to 10 pounds of dog can be tolerated), grapes, raisins, macadamia nuts, avocados, broccoli, chives, rhubarb, coffee, tea or tomatoes. These can cause stomach upset.

The insecticides used in the gardens or on the side of the roads can cause irritation. Be aware when these are used, and keep your dog on

Dr. Deena Case-Pall gave a training session on Feb. 25 on how to safely walk your dog. We hope this is the first of many training sessions she will have for our pets.

Our next Pet Club meeting will be held Monday, March 14, at 7 p.m. in the Sun Room (note the temporary change in the room). Our speaker will be Marcus Stone from EPO addressing how to prepare our pets for an emergency. Everyone is welcome.

We have a camp-out this month! It's March 24-27 at Valencia Travel Village. Our hosts are Ron and Sharon Loney. Call them at 987-8292 to sign up.

Our next meeting will be Tuesday, March 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR.

The Booster Club

By Lin Grant

Your Booster Club has two events coming up in the near future.

First, this year we will be sponsoring the Annual Spring Sale in the pavilion on Saturday, May 7. The format will be unchanged, with table sales taking place the month before. Refreshments will, as always, be free. The Boosters will have a sale table of their own and encourage all residents, if they don't have enough goodies to purchase a whole table and want to donate to a cause that helps the Village, to donate your items to the Booster table for sale. Details on the sale of the tables will be announced later.

Following closely behind, the Boosters are planning their next event, "A Night in Italy," on Sunday, May 15. The menu will offer several dining choices plus music and entertainment. Profits from this event will again be used to enhance this beautiful place we call our home.

Later in the year, we hope to have a horse racing event, our version of the popular Gong Show and perhaps a game show with participation from the Village.

The Walk of Celebration is now complete. The purchase of those bricks has funded many of our projects. We thank you for your support.

We meet the second Tuesday of every month at 7 p.m. in the Garden Room. Please join us!

Happy St. Patty's Day

By Mindy Gail Learn, V. 5

There's a leprechaun hiding in the meadow.
There's some Irish moss growing in the glen.
There's a pot o' gold melting in the sunset
Lots of charm in the Village round the bend.

There's an old Irish woman at her stovetop
Makin' stew while she hums a little tune.
As she stirs, there's a clover in her pocket
And the window reveals an Irish moon.

Then the postman comes up the cobbled walkway
And she greets Sean O'Malley on his way.
He waves back as he says, "Top o' the mornin,
Miss O'Leary! Have a great St. Patty's Day!"
