An Active Senior Community

Santa Rosa Road, Camarillo, California

August 3, 2012

Seniors drivers can get car checkup Aug. 11

A first-of-its-kind program that could make a lifesaving difference to older drivers will be presented Saturday, Aug. 11, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. outside the Recreation Center.

A safety program for senior motorists checks how well drivers and their personal vehicles work together. Developed through a collaboration of the American Society on Aging, AAA, AARP and the Occupational Therapy Association, CarFit is the first program to offer adults 55 years and older the opportunity to check how their personal vehicles "fit" them.

Trained professionals will lead senior drivers through a 12-point checklist with their vehicle, recommend personal vehicle adjustments and adaptations and offer community-specific resources and activities that could make their personal vehicles "fit" better or enhance their safety.

An occupational therapist also will be on hand to provide information to older drivers on how to maintain and strengthen driving health.

Because of the time allocated for each vehicle, it is estimated that there will be time only for approximately 24 cars and their drivers to be evaluated. It is imperative that residents wishing to participate make an appointment in advance by calling Al Schwartz at 482-4299. There is no charge.

LV resident has 50 plays, 9 movies to her credit

From a start in communist Poland, Teresa Watras finds success in U.S.

By Patty Ecker

Let's backtrack in the life of Teresa Watras.

Now she lives in Village 39, portrayed Aunt Alicia in the recent LV production of "Gigi" and loves spending time with her grandchildren.

Pretty typical for an LV grandma who moved to Camarillo specifically to be close to her son, who lives in Moorpark with his family.

What is not typical were Teresa's previous moves, which were lonely and frightening because she was trying to leave communist Poland when the borders were closed to all but a handful of citizens.

It was the early 1960s. Life in Poland was dark and difficult. While the Polish papers reported that the economy was good, store shelves were empty of everything from bread to bed sheets. Shoppers lined up for hours before dawn in the hopes of buying a few staples. Teresa lived with her parents in Warsaw; she was in law school to satisfy her lawyer father.

"I always wanted to be an actress, ever since I was 5 years old when my dad took me to a play," Teresa recalls. "So just before my last year in law school, I quit and got a job at a theater, first as a page, then as an extra."

She never looked back.

Teresa Watras became a well-known actress in Poland with 50 plays and nine movies on her resume.

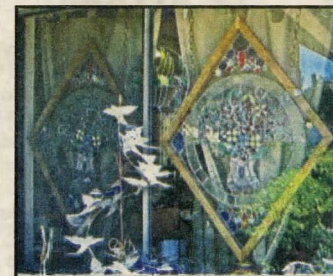

She describes life under the communist regime as "against human nature. You could never express your personal opinions. Yet, ironically,

Teresa Watras, whose most recent performance was in the Players Guild's "Gigi," has had a long acting career.

The man who made this lovely stained glass window just turned 100 years old. Can you guess who it is? See Page. 9.

Leisure Village was treated to a moving Fourth of July ceremony. Read all about it on Page 6.

The Leisure Village Bowling League is accepting new sign-ups beginning Friday, Aug. 10. For more details, see Page 3.

AARP offers driving refresher

By Claudia Roberts

A Safe Driving refresher class for Leisure Village residents will be taught on Friday, Sept. 14, from 1 to 5 p.m. in the MPR.

All licensed Leisure Village residents who have attended the longer version are invited to attend the refresher class. Each successful attendee will receive a current DMV booklet and certificate which, when presented to your insurance agency, will provide you with a discount good for three years.

If you want to improve defensive driving habits and learn how to adjust to age-related changes in vision, hearing and reaction time, this class is for you.

The next two-day, four-hour class for those of you who have never taken a safe driving class is Nov. 9 and 16 from 1 to 5 p.m.

The last class was full, so please plan on signing up for this two-day class early.

Pre-registration is required.

The cost is $12 for members of AARP and $14 for non-members. Your check will not be deposited until after the class.

To register, please contact Claudia Roberts at 482-9904.

September deadlines

Deadline for letters, club news, stories, photos and classified ads for the September 2012 issue is Thursday, August 23, at 5 p.m. The Display Advertising deadline will be Friday, August 24, at 5 p.m. Publication is scheduled for Friday, September 7. Please e-mail stories and photos to editorilv@yahoo.com. Typed copy, double-spaced, should be deposited in the ILV box in the Recreation Center hallway. Handwritten material should be submitted early to allow for typing.

Jerry Spector took first place in the LV Camera Club's monthly competition in July for "Early Morning Rain," which was entered in the Assigned category of "Water." More winners, Pages 4, 10.

Sign-ups for bowling league begin Aug. 10 in Lanai Room

The Leisure Village Bowling League is open to all LV residents — guys and gals. We bowl every Friday morning, with a couple of holiday breaks, from Sept. 7, 2012, to April 26, 2013. It is a league based on camaraderie and fun. We have a couple of tournaments, some potlucks and, most importantly, lots of good times.

Sign-up for the 2012-2013 season will take place on Friday, Aug. 10, from 10 a.m. to noon in the Lanai Room. If you are not currently a league member, it's very easy to join.

The first step is to go to Harley's Camarillo Bowl, located behind the 99-Cent Store, and tell the person at the desk you are from Leisure Village and want to register. You will receive an ID number. You will need this number when you join.

The next step is to establish an average unless you've bowled in a league within the last year. To establish an average, just bowl nine consecutive games at Camarillo Bowl. No, it doesn't have to be done in one day. Usually, one will bowl three games on three different days. Keep track of those scores and turn them in with your ID number at sign-up.

Since a bowling ball can be considered a lethal weapon, husbands and wives cannot be on the same team.

If it is more convenient, you may sign up at the bowling alley any Monday, Wednesday or Friday morning through Aug. 8. Annual dues are $10, and bowling is $9 per week.

Villagers enjoy Independence Day celebration

The Fourth of July celebration at Leisure Village was held on Tuesday, July 3, in the Assembly Room at noon.

There were 312 people in attendance, plus 18 dedicated volunteers, many of whom have been working this event for years.

Partygoers enjoyed Hebrew National Franks, chips, potato salad, coleslaw, sauerkraut, beans, soda and ice cream.

The theme for the day was, of course, "Patriot," with videos, singing, flag-waving and the 37th-year performance of the LV Rhythmettes.

The Bone Zone, a quartet of trombonists, entertained the crowd with favorites from over the years, and our own Stan Vansant was in on several numbers, with a wonderful rendition of "Proud To Be An American."

The day was enjoyed by all, even the nostalgic moments that brought a few tears.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family of John C. King Jr. gratefully acknowledges the many expressions of sympathy that were extended. We've lived here 16 years, and since he was active in swimming and other activities, he had made many friends. They have sent cards and made visits to the hospital and attended the July 5 memorial at our church. We have always been proud to be a part of this caring community.

— Dorothy King, V. 1

To my dearest friends, neighbors, staff of the Association Office, Recreation Office and Resident Services: My family and I most sincerely thank you all for your calls, visits, flowers, beautiful cards, goodies and tributes — and for your very loving thoughts and expressions of sympathy extended to us during the recent loss of my beloved husband, Stan.

Realtors Corner: If you're ready to think about selling, leasing, here's what to do

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate

Realtors who specialize in Leisure Village are often called to talk to families about making a decision to lease or sell a parent's home. This is an important decision, and good information will help.

Selling a home will require a Comparative Market Analysis to determine current market value with and without upgrading. The house will need to be cleared of all personal property, and a Realtor can assist with what upgrades — painting, flooring, lighting, etc. — will help to get the house sold more quickly and for the best price possible. In some cases, an "as is" sale may be the best decision. The Realtor will review closing costs to help determine the seller's probable net proceeds.

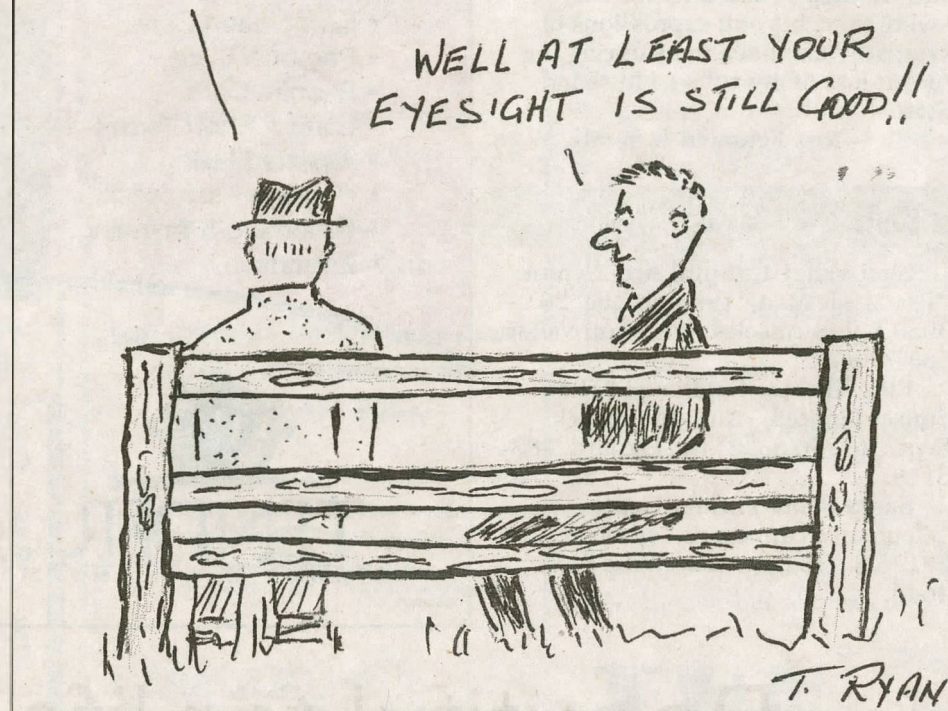

Leasing a home in Leisure Village will also require the removal of all personal property, along with some typical upgrading to make it emotionally appealing to a tenant in a competitive leasing market. The Leisure Village Association will do an exterior inspection of the property, and some corrections may be required. The homeowner/landlord will usually pay the monthly association fee, property tax and any upgrading or maintenance of the property. The family may choose to have a Realtor property manage and/or assist in finding a qualified tenant.

The Leisure Village Association has specific rules and regulations regarding the sale or leasing of a property. Your Leisure Village Realtor will be glad to assist.

— Sharron Parker is a Realtor at Troop Real Estate Inc. and can be reached at 805-443-1998, a direct cell number.

Who is that Distinguished Gentleman?

Generally speaking, the people we meet here in the Village represent a cross section of every part of the world. Unlike most neighborhoods, which by their location tend to reflect the average income of the homeowners, Leisure Village offers retired seniors amenities that appeal to all classes, regardless of their material wealth.

Your neighbors may have been laborers, teachers, writers, poets, artists, businessmen — a complete spectrum of professions.

There's the Everyman most men identify with, exemplified by James Stewart, Henry Fonda or, most recently, Tom Hanks.

There's also the Macho Man most men would like to identify with, the John Wayne type.

And there's the most desired but least obtainable, the Distinguished Gentleman. Picture him at an English men's club, never without jacket and tie, seated in a deep cushioned chair,

Village resident turns 100

By Bob Cohen

They say that the first 100 years are the hardest, and Leisure Village resident Manny Shultz is about to find out.

Manny, an original owner in Village 42, celebrated his 100th birthday on July 25.

A lot of things have happened to Manny during those 100 years. Born in Czarist Russia, Manny's father was a successful cabinetmaker and real estate owner. Although not wealthy, the family was solidly middle class, an accomplishment for the times.

Life was good, except for the times when the pogroms occurred. During one of them, the family was forced to live in the cellar for two weeks, so, in 1924, they packed up and headed for America. Getting there was to be an adventure in itself. They were held up in Poland for many months as a minor border dispute caused problems. The family had sewed all of their silver into Manny's sister's dress to hide it from thieves and thieving border guards. After many months and many more bribes, they made it to Belgium and a ship heading to New York City.

Manny didn't stay long in New York — only a few weeks at an aunt's place — before heading to Los Angeles.

Life in America was good, and Manny married Myrtle and quickly settled into the American dream, only to have it interrupted by World War II. But even there, he was fortunate in that he joined the Coast Guard and was stationed in San Pedro.

After the war, he resumed his civilian life driving a truck for a laundry firm and raising his three children until, when he was 60, he decided to retire and start a new career as a dental technician. He graduated dental technician school in 1975 at the age of 63, but before he could get his own business going, a close friend became very ill and Manny was drafted into his jewelry manufacturing business. Five years later, his friend decided to sell the business, giving Manny the excuse he needed to retire again, this time for real.

At that point, Manny and Myrtle found Leisure Village and bought into Village 42, where he remains today.

During his tenure at LV, Manny has been very active enjoying golf, with six holes-in-one to his credit, and playing poker. His hobbies include making stained glass and woodworking, many examples of which are evident in his home today.

Myrtle passed on in 2006 after more than 60 years of marriage.

The toughest part of making it to 100: "Watching all of your friends not make it."

Outlook for the next 100: "It's OK as long as I can stay reasonably independent."

theater and the arts were promoted."

So she was busy acting.

A theatrical agent saw her perform and invited her to work in Chicago, which had a large Polish population. She had no problem getting a passport, and off she went.

"I worked a lot and eventually got a part in 'The Solid Gold Cadillac,' starring Imogene Coco and Marie Wilson," Teresa recalls. "I performed all over the U.S. and Canada."

But there was a problem.

She hadn't seen her young son Martin for three years. He had stayed in Poland with her parents and his father. Polish authorities would not permit him to join Teresa, and her visa had expired. If she returned home, her father told her she would be jailed.

After an arduous campaign of letters, pleas and official requests, the refusals mysteriously ended. On Dec. 8, 1969, Martin, then 13 years old, arrived at LAX. Life was different for both of them. Teresa worked close to home; acting took a back seat. Martin became fluent in English within months. He's now a lawyer.

"I am very happy here," Teresa says about her life in Leisure Village. "I'm meeting such nice people and I love The Players Guild. I'm an American citizen. I tell my grandchildren what I learned from life: When you have a goal, go for it, no matter what!"

Teresa Watras in some of her many performances during her theatrical and movie career.

CLUB NEWS

LV Pet Club

By Mary Ann Robnett

Four beautiful cats attended our July meeting. They were brought by Phyllis Berger of the Cat's Cradle Rescue & Adoption Center in Ventura. This is a non-profit organization that rescues about 350 cats and kittens each year. The cats are neutered, given necessary vaccines and fostered in homes until they are adopted. There is a thrift shop at 4160 Market Street in Ventura that helps support the group. Cats can be adopted at the thrift shop on weekends from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more information, call up <http://www.catscradlerescue.org/>.

There will not be an August meeting. Our next Pet Club meeting will be Sept. 10 at 7 p.m. in the MPR. Our speaker will be Beatrice Battier, DVM, who will discuss elder cats and dogs.

Woodshop

By Chuck Russell

The Woodshop is available to residents with woodworking experience, provided that they can demonstrate the ability to operate power equipment safely. Residents interested in having key access to the shop should contact a Woodshop Committee member for an appointment to be checked out on the equipment.

The LV Woodshop committee members volunteer their time to offer repair service of wood items. Leisure Village residents with broken household items are welcome to bring those to the Woodshop in the Recreation Center Tuesday and Wednesday mornings between 10 a.m. and noon. There is no guarantee that all damaged items can be fixed, only that they will try to restore them to the best of their ability. There is no charge for this service; donations are accepted. For more information, contact Sid Alweiss at 482-5341.

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The 9-ball tournament that started on July 30 and ends on Aug. 14 is an exciting event for spectators and participants alike.

If you have not joined this tournament, come by and cheer on your favorite player. Winners' names will be published in next month's issue of ILV.

The annual pizza party is scheduled for Thursday, Sept. 6, at 6:30 p.m. on the patio. All club members are welcome to attend. Although wine is available, you may BYOB.

There will be no meeting in August.

International Folk Dancing

By Michele Malkin

Are you ever bored on Mondays between 1 and 2:30 p.m.? And would you like to learn international folk dancing? Join our fun group in the Sun Room. Men and women are welcome; no experience is necessary. Our leader and friend, Valerie, is great. Any questions, please call Michele at 383-9996.

Friday Night Country Western Dance Club

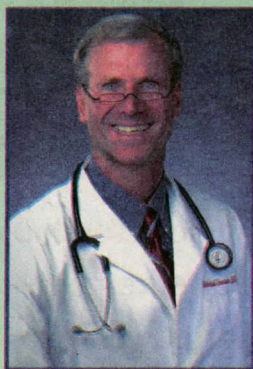

By Sue-Ellen Colp

The next dance will be held August 3 at 7:30 p.m. in the AR. Jim Potter will be teaching, and it will be a surprise, so come on down, have some fun and socialize with your friends. You don't need to know how to dance. We have a lesson at 8:15 p.m. Bring your own bottle and a snack to share and get out of the house and listen to our deejay, Marshall, spin some tunes. Put the music you like on the list, and hopefully he will get to it.

It is so nice to see so many new faces. Thank you to Judy for teaching "go seven" last month. It was a fun and easy dance to learn. Thank you to everyone who brings snacks. The food is so good, so come join in the fun.

Cost is only $5.00 for music, lesson, good food, company and just a great time. So see you Friday night. We provide coffee and punch and, of course, water.

Saturday Night Dance Party

By Andrea Moran

Well, summertime is in full swing, and so is the dance floor. Swing, Latin and waltzes, along with a few line dances, are the main types of dances. What a wonderful way to spend a Saturday night!

Our schedule for August: Aug. 4,

Moore Music; Aug. 11, Rhythm Kings; Aug. 18, Dick Parent; and Aug. 25, Jerry Dokken.

What a great place we live in at Leisure Village. Come and enjoy the party. BYOB. Popcorn and punch will be provided. Dance from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Admission is $7. See you there.

Compassionate Cancer Care

When you receive a cancer diagnosis, you do not need to face it alone. Our caring team will answer your questions, explain your options, and help you make the best choice. Our goal for over 30 years has been to eliminate cancer while preserving quality of life. However, the personal attention we give to our patients and their families is what truly makes the difference. Why spend precious time commuting, when you can have UCLA-level treatment close to home.

No cancer is routine—for you or for us. Let's face cancer together.

Village gardens yield plentiful harvests this time of year

Story by Bob McQuivey
Photos by Judy Spector

For obvious reasons many of the folks in Leisure Village avoid any connotation associated with the word "plot," so the farmers in our community refer to their sacred ground as "garden patches."

The story begins shortly after 1973 when a few of the residents wanted to grow their own vegetables, but others were concerned that the food would attract mice, rats and other vermin. The compromise reached at the time prohibited the activity at individual homes and thereafter restricted the growing of food crops to an area east of the pavilion now known as the Farmer's Gardens.

By 1994 the Farmer's Club became official, the area was fenced, the land divided into 103 individual sites and some restrictions in the form of rules and regulations added (see pages 127-128 in the phone book). Locks were installed on the gates in 1999 simply because vermin other than rodents were sampling (stealing) the ware (particularly tomatoes) with uncanny regularity. A security phone was subsequently installed a few years back after more than one unsuspecting gardener was locked inside the compound.

Fast-forward to the present day and we see Norm and Debbie Chapman's sunflowers rising high above the fence and clearly visible from the tennis courts.

John and Sunshine Peterson's corn crop is almost tall enough to require a ladder for harvesting.

Martha Sander's patch produces enough variety for a complete salad on a warm summer evening.

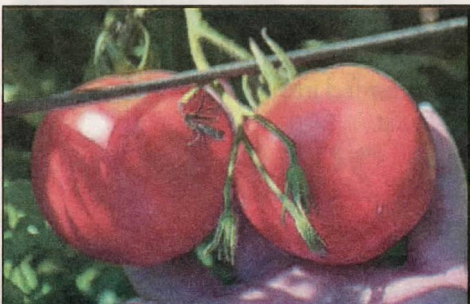

Joan Berfield is producing enough tomatoes to share with her neighbors.

And Al Pinto is growing zucchini large enough to produce a baker's dozen loaves of bread.

Similar to most other activities in our community, the interest in tilling the soil ebbs and flows like the changing tides. Although all patches are currently assigned to qualified residents, those interested in joining the fun may do so by adding their name to the short waiting list available at the Recreation Center office.

Thursday, Aug. 16, at 7:30 p.m. in the AR, the Players Guild will hold their monthly meeting. One of our great workshops will follow. Marty Simons is directing and producing a great one called "Made in The USA." This will be a night of classic country music. There will be singing, dancing and lots of laughing. It includes an all-star LV cast. You really don't want to miss this knee-slapping, rousing, funny musical night. As usual, there will be delicious refreshments afterwards.

Don't forget, membership is still only $7 for the whole year. So if you haven't signed up yet you can do so at the door. See you there.

Wii Bowling

By Carole Warren

Wii Bowling continues to be one of the most popular clubs here at Leisure Village. We have team bowling sessions on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Tuesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Three teams bowl at each session, and sessions last about an hour and a half. Bowling shoes and bowling balls are not required. No special skill is necessary, since Wii Bowling uses a TV set and hand controllers, all of which are provided.

Every week, we list games over 200 on our scoreboard inside our bowling room, and you'd be surprised how full that board gets! Future articles will list our top games and bowlers of the month.

We have four bowlers averaging over 200: Sylvia Edmonds, 223; Paul Schifanelli, 225; Darryl Sobelman, 200; and Joan Levy, 214.

If you are interested in joining our Wii Bowling league, please call Carole Miller at 383-6715 or Paul Schifanelli at 419-4124.

him at 389-1066. Wilma Hutson also has tickets and can be reached at 383-2022. Continental breakfast is at 7 a.m. and tee-offs are at 8 a.m. Cost is $7 for lunch and $1 for golf — $8 total. Happy Hour will start at noon and lunch is at 1 p.m. See you all there!

The Aug. 29 weekly tournament will be 9ers and 18ers for a 1-2 Team Tournament. Any questions, please call Merle at 444-5225.

For general questions please call President Naomi Sklar at 388-5999.

SAS Dinner Out

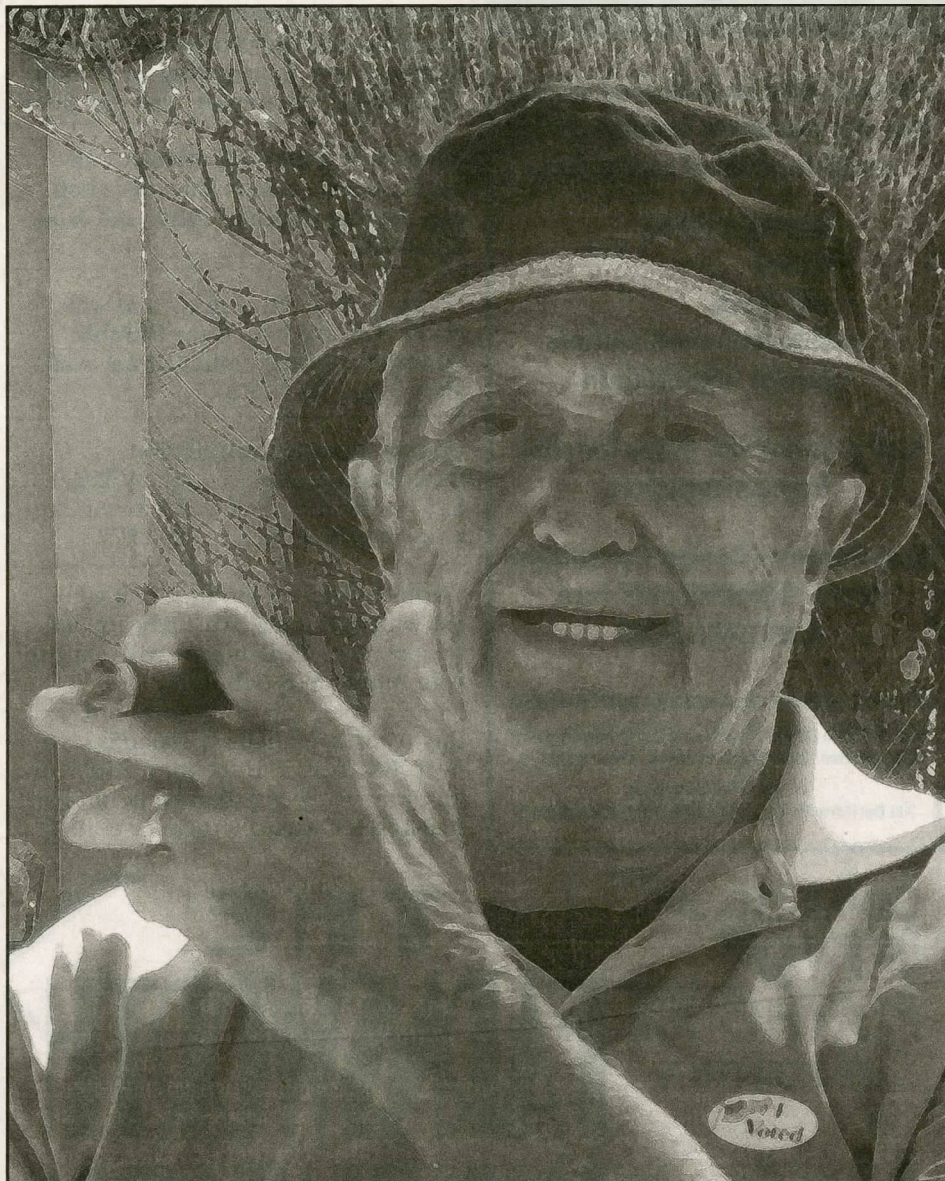

By Zelda Greentree

Ottavio's is still the choice for our next dinner out. Everyone enjoys the food and the service is always great! Not only do we get a private room, but we get individual checks with no hassle. There is still room for more of our former and new singles. Don't be shy. Call Lee Edwards at 484-3289 for reservations and join the 30 or so friends for our next night out. It will be on the second Tuesday of the month on Aug. 14 at 5:30 p.m. at Ottavio's Italian Restaurant. But please first call Lee for reservations. See you there.

Racquet Club

By Trish Zakas

What are the various sports that comprise the LV Racquet Club? Come to our next meeting to find out about the four sports we promote—tennis, paddle tennis, table tennis and PickleBall. Meet people who will happily share stories about why their sport is best and help you learn to play it. We are friendly and welcoming to both longtime neighbors and new residents. Lots of "get-to-know-you" activities are planned for the coming months, so this is a great time to get involved.

The Distinguished Gentleman mentioned on Page 8.

Our next meeting is Wednesday, Aug. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the MPR. Since it will soon be time to choose new board members for the coming year, the agenda will include a discussion about the election. Club members who would like to be part of the new board should contact a member of the nominating committee: Sunshine Peterson, Betty Stallman or Trish Zakas.

Our program on Aug. 8 features clarinetist David Singer, a new LV resident and member of our racquet club. David will play and speak about his career as a professional musician. He has performed for two presidents at the White House and has over 100 concert appearances in Carnegie Hall. Additionally, he was a celebrated recitalist in more than 60 countries while with the Grammy Award-winning Orpheus Chamber Orchestra of New York.

After David's presentation, there will be refreshments and time for enjoyable conversations.

Has your doctor, significant other, or just common sense told you to get more sun and exercise? Then play paddle tennis! Lessons will begin early September and registration is now underway. This class is for people who have never played a racquet sport before as well as for former tennis and racquet ball players. The four-week session meets once a week from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Instruction is free and racquets are provided during training. This may be the last set of beginner classes for the year. For more information, e-mail Trish Zakas, trish@vcnet.com.

Did you miss our annual picnic? Fifty-eight racquet club members did not. Attendees were rewarded with good food, great music and gales of laughter. If you couldn't attend this year, make it a "must do" activity for next year. The picnic is always held in July, so start watching for announcements in late May.
