

wavelength

CSUCI Professor to Moderate Camarillo City Council Forum

The University and the Camarillo City Council are co-sponsoring a candidates forum Tuesday, October 10, from 7 – 8:30 p.m. in council chambers. Scott Frisch, associate professor of political science, will be the moderator. All five candidates for three seats on the Camarillo City Council will be present to discuss issues and their qualifications.

Author to Discuss Book on 'Barrio Urbanism'

David R. Diaz, associate professor of Chicano Studies and Urban Planning and Studies at California State University, Northridge, will speak on his recent book, Barrio Urbanism, Chicanos, Planning and American Cities, Thursday, October 12, from 7 – 8 p.m. in the Aliso Hall Auditorium. Copies of his book will be available for purchase and the author will sign them from 8 – 9 p.m.

For more information, call Chanda Stewart, administrative support, ext. 3139.

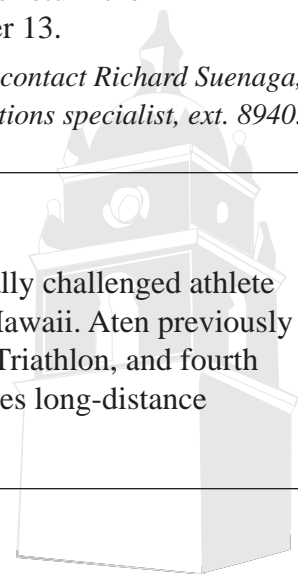

Faculty Reminder: Speakers Bureau to Be Updated

Members of the faculty are reminded to submit their updated or new information for the Speakers Bureau, located on the University Web site at www.csuci/speakersbureau. Individuals are asked to return their information by e-mail to Richard Suenaga, communications specialist, by Friday, October 13.

For more information or to receive a Speakers Bureau information form, contact Richard Suenaga, communications specialist, ext. 8940.

University Wishes Staff Member Good Luck in Hawaii Ironman

Marc Aten, web developer for Information Technology, will be participating as a physically challenged athlete in the hand cycle division of the Ironman triathlon, scheduled for October 21, in Kona, Hawaii. Aten previously placed second in the Los Angeles Marathon, first place in the Oxnard Strawberry Fields Triathlon, and fourth in the Buffalo Springs Ironman, a qualifier for the Hawaii Ironman, an event that combines long-distance swimming, biking, and running.

Annual Open House Welcomes Community to Campus

The University's annual Open House is scheduled for Saturday, October 21, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on campus. The free event provides an opportunity for the public to explore and learn more about the University on a first-hand basis. The open house will feature information and presentations on academic programs, student life and activities, campus history and future, admissions, financial aid, and campus housing.

For more information, contact Melissa Frazier, recruitment counselor, ext. 8522.

Osher Announces June 2007 Russian Tour

The Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) announces its second annual tour abroad. The trip is open to students, faculty, and staff, as well as OLLI members. The Russian River Cruise, scheduled for June 11-24, 2007, features a tour from Moscow to St. Petersburg, with stops at six cities along the way. Prices range from $2,655 to $3,155. Air fare is extra. In addition, an OLLI winter course on Russian Art History will provide background for the tour.

For more information, visit <http://www.csuci.edu/exed/osher.htm> or contact Marty Kaplan, OLLI director, ext. 8583.

Library Features Images of Campus

The University Library announces CampusView, an original collection of images of the people, places, and events of the University, as well as images from the University Library Archives that chronicle the past life of the campus as a state hospital. CampusView can be accessed from the library home page, www.library.csuci.edu, by clicking page on the Articles & Databases link. The content for the database is a joint effort between the University Library, Student Services, and the Communications and Marketing office.

For more information, contact Judy Swanson, director of Digital Initiatives, ext. 8924.

All Aboard

Welcome new University employees for August and September: Peter Scamardo, operating system analyst, Information Technology Services; Juliette Cook, receptionist, University Math & Writing Center; Cheryl Peckham, cashier, General Accounting; and Margaret Driscoll, circulation and electronic reserve library assistant, University Library.

Reminders

- Aliso Hall (Science Complex) Open House, Wednesday, October 11, 6 to 8 p.m. Students, faculty, staff, alumni, and members of the community are invited to view student research posters and demonstration of the new nuclear magnetic resonance machine. For more information: Callie Pettit, office of the Dean of Faculty, ext. 8967.
 - Photoshop for the Web Workshop, Friday, November 3, from 12 to 2 p.m., covers techniques and best practices for use on the Web. For more information: Judy Swanson, director of Digital Initiatives, ext. 8924.
-

Around Campus

Pizza with the President
President Richard Rush held his annual Pizza with the President event, allowing students to learn about University developments and progress, as well as give them an opportunity to ask questions.

CSUCI Display Highlighted at Local Restaurant

A collection of University items and memorabilia is now on permanent display at Applebee's Restaurant in Camarillo, located opposite Target in the shopping area off Las Posas Avenue. The display is located in the entrance to the restaurant. For more information, contact Communications and Marketing, ext. 8415.

Note: In general, event announcements in wavelength are presented in chronological order.
It is advisable to submit items at least four weeks in advance of the event.

wavelength is published by CSUCI Communications and Marketing.
Please direct questions or suggestions to Richard Suenaga, (805) 437-8940 or richard.suenaga@csuci.edu.