Village is a way of life

By Gerry Schulman

When we moved to Leisure Village, we did not buy a house; we bought a Way of Life.

There was a golf course, bocce, tennis courts, a woodshop, lapidary and a myriad of clubs athletic, cultural, musical and theatrical. We even have an outdoor chess set.

The key to most residents is the security that exists in the Village. But the lifeblood of the Village is the clubs and the various committees. There are approximately 65 clubs here.

The clubs and committees are run solely by volunteers. Many are older and have served for many years. We need new blood and new ideas.

I have volunteered for a number of groups and committees, and I will tell you it is very rewarding.

You are part of a Way of Life, and it is a good life. Please join in and participate in one or several of the groups.

To give of yourself within the community where you live will give you a great deal of happiness. Come join us and make the Village even more fantastic.

"Shooting Star," by Alice Beumkes, took the Grand Prize during the 4th Annual Pumpkin Festival on Thursday, Oct. 30. See story, Page 8.

Cash Cats coming Sunday

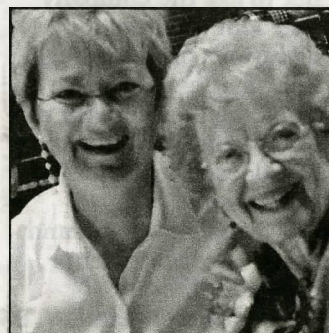

The Mighty Cash Cats

Showtyme presents comedian Brian Sheil and The Mighty Cash Cats on Sunday, Nov. 9, in the AR at 2 p.m.

The Brian Sheil Show is a non-stop, laughter-packed cavalcade of comedy, complete with audience participation, musical parodies, stand-up comedy and impressions.

The Mighty Cash Cats bring their tribute to the Man in Black, Johnny Cash. Come sing along and dance in the aisles.

Call Roz, "The Ticket Lady," at 383-6566 for tickets.

Claire Miller, with her late daughter, Nancy Bush.

A joy to meet Claire Miller

By John Kula

Have you ever had the good fortune to meet Claire Miller? A longtime Leisure Village resident, Claire is a kind and gentle woman.

When Claire was little, she loved to sing. As she grew older, her dream was to be an opera star. Though her dream did not come true, another dream did. She was given the opportunity to travel to Italy and

Interfaith Thanksgiving Service is Nov. 26

By Estella Bjal

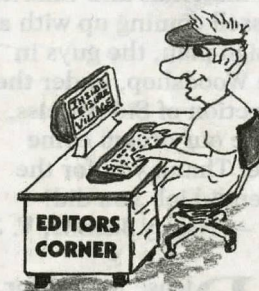

The 33rd Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will be held Wednesday, Nov. 26, in the AR. Welcoming starts at 7 p.m., followed by the program at 7:30.

Continuing the custom of rotation of sponsorship, the service this year is being hosted by the Catholic faith. Invocation will be by the Protestant faith. The sermon will be by the Catholic faith and the benediction will be by the Jewish faith.

All Villagers and guests are welcome. Approximately 300 people are expected to attend. Volunteers are needed. Please call the Rec Office at 482-8961.

Correction: In last month's "Bits from the Board" column, it was reported that a bid of $80,248 from Tolman & Wiker for workers compensation insurance was rejected by the Board of Directors. The actual figure was $180,248. We apologize for the error.

Dr. Lorne S. Label is director of the Brain Longevity Center in Thousand Oaks. Dr. Label will begin a series on maintaining a healthy brain. See Page 4.

The Woodshop was essentially shut down for four weeks in September and October due to extensive renovations. Fortunately, it was back in full operation on October 22. For more information, see the December issue of ILV.

A tribute to Ed Colbert, who passed away recently, appears on Page 3. Many will remember Ed for his work with the Outdoor Chess Club. He was truly a fascinating figure in the Village.

I am writing to give a big thank you to the great workers in the Woodshop.

We ushers of Showtyme always hoped to have our own set of numbers for the rows of seats when we had a show. With the help of David Harris getting the materials and Charles Russell coming up with a design plan, the guys in the Woodshop, under the direction of Sid Alweiss, made our dream come true. Thank you for the splendid job you did!

— Nancy Jacobs, V. 34

Please join us for a memorial service for my sister, Gertrude Mary Dullam, formerly of Village 30, on Sunday, Nov. 9, at 2 p.m. at St. Columba's Episcopal Church, 1251 Las Posas Road, Camarillo. All are welcome!

— Hilda Serr, V. 17

I walk my chihuahua every morning on the walkway from Village 15 to Village 13 because of the shade trees. The walkway has become a dumping place by other dogs. Where the path turns left to 13, there is a situation that should be cleaned up.

Dog owners: If that is where you walk, please come back and clean up the deposit.

Also, smokers: Sometimes I walk on Leisure Village Drive. I see the same thing, but in addition to unscrupulous dogs, the smokers dump their butts. Once, I had to put my fingers down my dog's throat to pull one out. This could have killed her.

If you walk, talk and smoke, please look down!

We need a poop and butt patrol!

— Miriam Hasen, V. 15

Have you ordered a small grill for $39.95? My sister, Mae, who is 90 years old, did, and when she looked at her Visa bill, she had been charged $399 plus $51.20 for shipping. The bank refunded her money. She was advised to return the item, but that would cost $17.

Her attorney advised her to ask the company that sent the item for directions on returning it at their expense or it would be put out with the garbage in three weeks. She doesn't expect to hear from them.

Check your bank and credit card statements carefully.

— Allen Leland, V. 25

BIBLE STUDY

The Spiritual Growth Bible Study group meets every Tuesday from 10 to 11:15 a.m. This non-denominational group is led by four local pastors in rotation each week. No homework is required. Each pastor leads a separate study directly from the Bible. The four topics in rotation are the book of Hebrews, the book of Job, the book of Colossians and the Gospel of John. We welcome both men and women. This group has been meeting for more than 20 years. For location, call Carol Cannel at 987-7570 or Mary O'Donnell at 388-0480.

BETTER BREATHING

By Lorraine Comer

Let's meet and discuss things to help make your breathing easier during the holidays and beyond. Hope to see all of you at the Better Breathing classes the second Wednesday of the month at 10 a.m. in the Sun Room.

IN MEMORIAM

LV's chess king Ed Colbert: a humble giant among men

By Eileen Splinter
and Ivan Bjel

Dr. Ed Colbert, a renowned psychiatrist and an international humanitarian and a resident of Village 20, passed away recently. He is survived by his wife, Mary Dady, seven children, four stepchildren, and 14 grandchildren.

Ed was a man of intellect, passion and integrity. His seemingly limitless energy and ability to make things happen will continue to be an inspiration for all of those who had an opportunity to work with him. He was a caring and humble man and rarely talked about his accomplishments, which could easily fill the lives of many men, not just one. There were never enough hours in a day for Ed; he was always on the move!

At the age of 16, he graduated from high school as class valedictorian and then attended one year of college before enlisting in the U.S. Navy. While serving, Ed became fascinated by the miraculous recoveries of extremely shell-shocked servicemen, leading to his interest in the field of mental health. He returned to college and received his bachelor's degree, then graduated from Marquette University School of Medicine and took up residency in psychiatry at UCLA.

Ed began his medical career in 1959 as director of the Xavier Clinic at St. John's Hospital in Santa Monica. After opening a private practice in 1967, he published the first article on the use of lithium in the treatment of bipolar disease for the American Medical Journal.

Ed was an outstanding communicator in his field, which led to regular appearances at community meetings, editorial work for medical newsletters, university lecture engagements, a guest speaker appearance on television, and offerings of leadership roles in prestigious associations, organizations and boards. He was president of the National Guild of Catholic Psychiatrists, the Los Angeles County Medical Association and the Los Angeles County Catholic Physicians' Guild, and he was a member of the Campaign of Human Development.

After his retirement in 1993, Ed moved to Ventura County and redirected his energies to humanitarian projects and public health affairs. He contributed countless volunteer hours to many organizations. He was chairman of the Bioethics Program, Los Angeles and Ventura Health Care Associations, a member of the Republican Ventura Central Committee, Rotary International and Board of Directors at St. John's Seminary.

He was recruited for Catholic 3rd Order of the Knights of Malta.

His love of children prompted him to direct his energy and resourcefulness to the RAIN Project, a facility that provides a home for Ventura County's homeless. With the help of the Rotarians and a playground equipment company, a playground was built for the children living in the RAIN Project. Around Christmas of each year, Ed collected and personally delivered hundreds of shoes to Mexican orphanages. His community work earned him the Camarillo Senior Citizen of the Year award in 2007.

His notable contribution to Leisure Village was the foundation of the Outdoor Chess Club, which brought another new beneficial activity to our community. He continued to promote the club's activities within LV and Camarillo and wrote the Chess Club column for Inside Leisure Village until his untimely demise.

He will be missed by all his friends and many Ventura County residents whose life he enriched!

Brain needs exercise, too

By Dr. Lorne S. Label
 First in a series

When most people think of exercise, they envision working out to keep their bodies physically fit and healthy. But the brain — so important to living a full life — also needs an exercise regimen to stay agile and alert.

What can you do to challenge your brain? Activities like crossword puzzles, card games, reading, volunteering and Sudoku puzzles will stimulate thought and cause you to retain information and problem-solve. Even planning a vacation or attending a class will require the brain to process new information.

More challenging activities might include mastering a foreign language,

Bits from the LVA Board

Here is a rundown of the action taken by the Leisure Village Association Board of Directors during its Oct. 6 meeting:

Rule number 19.13, allowing political signs to be placed in the windows of private residences, was amended by the board in order to be consistent with state law.

The board approved the design and location for two benches donated by Inside Leisure Village to be placed along Mountain View Drive.

The board supported preliminary recommendations to amend the rules for use of the swimming pool and submitted the proposed ruling to homeowners for the required 30-day review period.

The board approved a request by 18 homeowners to establish a new club in the Village to be known as the Boosters Club.

The board approved an allocation of up to $1,300 to be used in conjunction with donated funds for the purchase of a fiber optic curtain and controller to be used on the stage in the AR.

RV Club plans holiday benefit

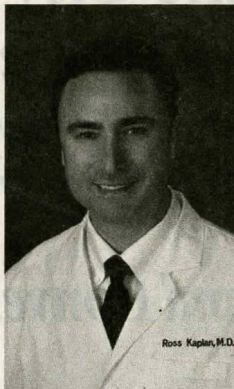

By Fred Sass

The RV Club will again have its annual Holiday Party at the Sterling Hills Country Club. The date is Tuesday, Dec. 2, at noon. Cost is $12 per person. Each person is to bring a $10 wrapped gift for a child. Mark the gift for a boy or girl and appropriate age. The gifts are given to the children of the Ventura County Rescue Mission. Luncheon tickets can be purchased now by calling Kathy Caldwell at 482-0282.

These days many of us are saving money by not going out to eat as often. That doesn't mean you can't have your restaurant favorites. Here is a do-it-yourself version of Mimi's Café Corn Chowder from Todd Wilbur's "Top Secret Restaurant Recipes" book. Make a batch and freeze individual portions in small containers. Alas, you'll still have to go to Mimi's for those yummy muffins!

Mimi's Café Corn Chowder
Makes 8 1-cup servings

2 tablespoons butter
2 large celery stalks, chopped (about 1½ cups)
½ cup diced white onion
4 cups water
1 russet potato, peeled and cut into ½-inch cubes
(about 2 cups)
1 bay leaf
1 15-ounce can creamstyle corn with liquid
1 15-ounce whole kernel
corn with liquid
2 teaspoons granulated sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon ground white pepper
½ cup flour
1½ cups half and half
Minced fresh parsley

1. Sauté celery and onion in butter for 5 minutes in large pan or stock pot. Do not brown.

2. Add water, potato and bay leaf. Bring to boil, then reduce heat and simmer for 15 minutes, stirring occasionally.

3. Add creamed corn with liquid, canned whole corn with liquid, sugar, salt and white pepper. Simmer for 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

4. Combine flour with half-and-half and stir until smooth. Add this mixture to soup and simmer for 10 to 15 minutes, until thick.

5. Spoon a 1-cup portion into a bowl and sprinkle parsley on top.

Vested title in real estate

By Sharron Parker
Troop Real Estate, Inc.

The following is a description of some of the different methods that title can be held in real estate:

Sole Ownership — is described as ownership by one individual or person. A typical sole ownership description would be Jane Smith, a single woman; Jane Smith, an unmarried woman; James Smith, a married man as his sole and separate property.

Joint Tenancy — is a manner of vesting title to two or more individuals who own real estate in equal shares or interest and subject to the rights of survivorship. Upon the death of one party, title is automatically vested to the surviving joint tenants. A joint tenant cannot will his ownership to another individual.

Tenancy in Common

— a manner of vesting title to two or more individuals who own real estate property at the same time. The proportionate ownership does not have to be equal. Each tenant can will their interest to heirs.

Community Property — a manner of vesting title to real estate property owned by husband and wife with each owning one half. Either spouse may convey one half of the property either through a sale or by a will.

There are also other methods of vesting title to ownership to a partnership, a corporation or a trust. It is always wise to consult a real estate attorney for legal advice on how you should take title to your property.

hear an opera sung in the La Scala Opera House in Milan.

She and her husband raised six wonderful children. Her main rule in the household was that no one was allowed to go to bed angry. Her children learned at an early age the valuable art of reconciliation.

Claire spent many years working as a beautician in Ohio and here in Camarillo at St. John's Hospital. Over the years, she has learned how to make people feel comfortable and bring out the best in them.

A sudden death of her daughter, Nancy Bush, was a tragic turn in her life. For 25 years, Nancy was a member of the Pleasant Valley Recreation and Park District Board of Directors. A longtime resident of Camarillo, she was best-known for her careful planning and as a founding member of the agency. Her major role was to help oversee 27 parks throughout the area.

Unbeknownst to many, Nancy suffered from a rare blood disease. For her dedication and hard work, a Crestview Park in Camarillo was named in her honor. The Nancy Bush Park is something the whole family feels very proud of. Nancy is sorely missed by both her friends and family.

Claire's heart is filled with pride as she shared the "mark in the world" each of her children have made through their choices of very different careers. Son Ronald for the past 33 years has served in the Air Force and is a lieutenant colonel. Skip is a consultant and has authored four books on business-related topics. Kurt is a sales consultant. Heidi is in the bed-and-breakfast business, and Karen just began a career as a nurse.

This year, as they gather at the Thanksgiving table, there will be 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren. There will be 39 family members! What a treat that will be!

As we all know, the results of a giving person far outlast their physical body. Their legacy is love, and their actions go from them and ripple into the lives of others and down through the generations.

500 attend Pumpkin Fest

The 4th Annual Pumpkin Festival was held on Thursday, Oct. 30. It was attended by more than 500 residents and guests.

The festival was filled with great chili, pumpkin dishes, excellent carved and decorated pumpkins and some very enjoyable entertainment.

It was a pleasure to have judges from the local communities come in to judge the chili, baked goods, pumpkins and the costume contests.

It was a very enjoyable day for all Leisure village residents and guests.

For a complete list of winners and judges, see the December issue of Inside Leisure Village.

The Mavericks

By Marge Socia

Please mark your calendars for our "Sherimerry Night" on Friday, Nov. 21, at 7 p.m. in the AR. "Sherimerry" is a group of two girls named Sheri and Merry who will provide "singertainment" that we can all get up to and boogie along with the singing, dancing and rock 'n' roll hits from the '70s, '80s, '90s and now. We will also be enjoying pie and ice cream and are asking those members with last names beginning with A-P to bring a pie cut and ready-to-serve and those members with last names beginning with Q-Z to bring ice cream. As always, please BYOB.

Showtyme

By Gerry Schulman

The October show with Jimmy Chapel was outstanding. We are very fortunate to have Phil Kamens back and providing us with outstanding entertainment month after month. Welcome back, Phil!

The show for Friday, Dec. 5, will be on the first Friday of the month. This will only be for December. This is by request of the office. In January, we will go back to our regular schedule, the second Friday of the month.

The Dec. 5 show will feature singing sensation Sylvia Mora. She has entertained throughout the United States and various top spots in Las Vegas, Hong Kong, Mexico City, Tokyo and Aruba, to name a few. She will make this an evening to remember. The show is free to members and $3 for non-members.

Remember, our big show is this Sunday, Nov. 9, at 2 p.m. in the AR. We will have a doubleheader: comedian Brian Sheil and The Mighty Cash Cats.

Brian has appeared previously in Leisure Village. His new show is packed with comedy, complete impressions and musical parodies.

The second half of the show is The Mighty Cash Cats. They are an accurate re-creation of a Johnny Cash concert. We will go on a musical journey from the '50s to the hits of the '60s, '70s and the '80s.

Tickets may still be purchased at the door. They are $10 for members and $13 for non-members. Do not miss this afternoon of comedy and great pop music.

We need volunteers for the operation of the club. We need new blood to be officers and handle the various committee jobs. You will find this a very rewarding experience. Many of the people handling these jobs have been doing this for a very long time and are getting on in years. We need help, so please volunteer. The satisfaction is manifold.

hysterical, and you will enjoy it. The heck with all of them that are going on the cruise.

The annual Pizza Party is set for Monday, Jan. 5. There is a change due to the fact that the first Thursday of the month is New Year's and the room was not available for the second Thursday. This was moved from December due to the fact that so many of our club members will be on a cruise. These are our workers, and we need them to make the party a success.

Enough of this dribble. Just remember the party is on Monday, Jan. 5.

Please remember to let your friends know that it is not necessary to be from New York to be a member of the New York Club. All are welcome. Tell them that there is a special on membership dues. If you sign up now, you get the rest of 2008 and the 2009

Players Guild

By Ted Lansing

November's Players Guild Workshop returns to the modest format of "Old Time Radio" with a presentation of three skits taken from the hilarious comedy of Frances Langford and Don Ameche as "The Bickersons" or, as often billed, "The Honey-moon Is Over."

The Bickersons brought family strife to new "heights," or maybe "lows," of marital combat. Produced and directed by Ted Lansing, and with a talented adversary in Joyce Belcher, the workshop will follow the genre of the late, venerated Milt Mankoff, and will be dedicated to his memory. 600-plus series. In addition, Leonard Belcher had a 234, Jerry Rosen a 203 and Al Schuster a 201. Side pot winners were Norm Scanlan, Jerry Rosen and Leonard Belcher for the men, and Sybil Moore, Helen Hartman and Helen Koehn for the ladies.

Week 4: Things calmed down a bit as Leonard Belcher had the only 200 game, knocking down 212 pins. Side pot winners were John Albany, Stan Reshes and Leonard Belcher for the men, and Ginny Cordell, Lucy Fiore and Shirley McQuivey for the ladies.

Week 5: It began with a delicious potluck brunch along with Les Galvin's 216 and Ray Cass with a 200-even game. Side pot winners were Bill Fox, Sal Carbone and Les Galvin for the men, and Mary Ahearn, Helen Hartman and Darleen Alexander for the ladies.

Week 6: Things heated up again with Stan Feldman and Al Schuster both with a 232 and Leonard Belcher with a 228. Side pot winners were Stan Feldman, Al Schuster and Stan Reshes for the men, and, for the women, Helen Koehn, Betty Herrmann and a tie between Shirley Heller and Joyce Belcher.

Little-known fact: The Leisure Village Bowling League began in 1975 with four teams.

The monthly meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month in the MPR at 2 p.m. The pre-meeting refreshments are served at 1:30 p.m. Come early, have coffee, cookies, wine or punch and chat with the members. Get 50/50 tickets for monthly drawing at end of the meeting.

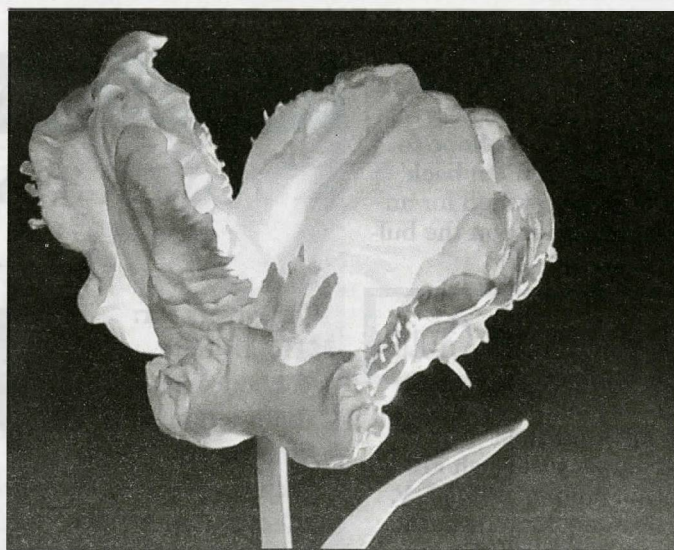

Every Tuesday morning we have a tournament in the Village. Every Tuesday at 7:30 a.m., before the scheduled tournament, coffee and juice are provided, followed by soft drinks and beer at the 1st Tee when we finish playing. On meeting days we have coffee, juice and buns at 7:30 a.m. and either a putting contest or a chipping contest with prize money for the winners. All you have to do is show up, even if you don't play in the tournament. You can bring a potential member and play with him if you make arrangements a week in advance with Don Hamilton to arrange the schedule.

The Club Championship for our home course was held on Oct. 7 and 14. The results were as follows:

Flight A Low Gross, Jerry Johnson (our new club champion); Low Net, John Thorne; 2nd Low Net, Rick Sescia.

Flight B Low Gross, Donald Hamilton; Low

In the October Camera Club competition, Don Treadwell took first place in the Open category for "Backlit Tulip."

LV Musicians meets on the second Thursday of each month in the AR, alternating between afternoon and evening meetings. Come join the LV Musicians on Thursday, Nov. 13, from 7 to 9 p.m.

If you enjoy listening to music, please join our audience and bring a friend. If you play any musical instrument and would like to volunteer to entertain, please contact Fred Grayson at 482-8889.

LV Musicians and the Sing-A-Long Group are going to have a joint Holiday Party. Mark your calendar for Monday, Dec. 15, at 5:30 p.m. in the AR. The AR will be decorated in festive holiday style. Members of LV Musicians and Sing-A-Long Groups will provide entertainment.

You will be served an elegant four course dinner catered by Country Harvest to include an assortment of appetizers, salad with dressing on the side, a main menu choice of prime rib, salmon with dill sauce or roast turkey, each accompanied by green beans almandine, twice-baked potato, rolls and butter. Vegetarian lasagna will be available by request. There will also be dessert, coffee, tea and strawberry punch.

We are planning an elegant, festive and entertaining gathering for members of the LV Musicians Club, the Sing-A-Long Group and their guests — and all this at $19 per person. You may of course elect to BYOB.

Tickets will be sold at both the November Sing-A-Longs and the November LV Musicians meeting. Cash or checks made payable to LV Musicians are acceptable. If you are not able to attend these meetings, please contact Anita. Please see CLUB on 16

This is going to be a party you are not going to want to miss. We hope to see you there.

Single Active Seniors

By Zelda Greentree

Well, now that the national election is over, we can concentrate on our own election. Yes, it's that time of year again. The nominees for the new officers were announced at the October meeting, and the election will take place at our regular meeting of Nov. 11. Nominations will also be taken from the floor. Not anticipating any "election discrepancies," we will continue the meeting with an outstanding program.

Our speaker on Nov. 11 will be Shirley van Ooijen. She is a world traveler and a resident of Leisure Village. Her topic is "The Stone Age People of New Guinea," where she spent five months on a remote island by herself. She will tell us about the people who still live as they did hundreds of years ago. This is an unusual and extremely interesting evening we have planned. Come and enjoy! This meeting starts at 7 p.m. in the MPR.

The movie we are showing Nov. 18 is called "The Visitor," starring Richard Jenkins as a professor who forms an unlikely friendship with a young immigrant couple. As usual, our theater is in the Annex, and showtime is 7 p.m. It's free and is one of the perks for joining SAS at the outrageous price of $5 a year.

It's not too soon to also announce that our annual holiday party will be held this year on Dec. 9. Everyone brings a gift for about $10 for the gift exchange and a snack, either hors d'oeuvres, dips or desserts, enough for six to eight people. In other words, it's a glorified potluck. Call Sharon at 389-6834 for reservations and plan to have a great time.

Remember, all of our meetings are held at 7 p.m. Tuesday evenings in the MPR or the Annex.

If you need more information, call Zelda at 389-9694.

As I have said before, come give us a try. You might like it. If we get too big we can always get another room. As of now, we are meeting in the Sun Room at 1 p.m. on Mondays.

Village Painters

By Aurelie Zachary

On Oct. 1, we had a brief meeting in the MPR. Then we carpooled to the Art Center at California State University, Channel Islands. Displayed in the first two rooms were wonderfully bright paintings, most of them abstract. The next room held outstanding bronze statuettes.

We walked through the building, marveling at the works of art in the various stalls rented by artists; the weaving department, where special items are for sale; the intricate use of fish bone for small baskets, etc.; and the special items shaped from clay in the ceramic department. It was a pleasant trip and well worth the effort.

Paintings in the library in November are by Ruth Miller. They're pastels, all done with her left hand!

Saturday Night Dance

By Milan Weiss

This is the month of the bird — the Thanksgiving bird. The Saturday Night Dance Party was made for this occasion and this is how you can use it: Attend the Black and White dance party on Nov. 29, two days after Thanksgiving, and the Jerry Dokken Dance Quartet will encourage you to dance until you're svelte! How's that?

Here is the Saturday Night Dance Party schedule for November: Nov. 8, Rick Tucker Country Western; Nov. 15,, Jerry Dokken Quartet; Nov. 22, Caravan; Nov. 29, Jerry Dokken Black and White night — and you can wear, if you want and add to the festivity, a combination of black and white clothing.

All dances start at 7:30 p.m. and end at 10:30 p.m. The cost is $5 per person. Please join us for a lovely evening. As has been said many times, we love to see you there!

Lapidary Shop

By Bill McGeehen

Summer, with vacations and visitors, is closing, and the lapidary operations are returning to normal. The Wednesday afternoon classes at 1 p.m. and the Thursday evening classes at 6:30 p.m. have resumed for beginners as well as those who wish to hone their skills and are

Billiard Club

By Jack Quinn

The Fall 1 & 15 eight ball tournament was a great success, thanks to the efforts of John Wirtz.

Aleta Trogdon proudly took first place in the SA group, Jack Quinn got second, and Hal Simon received third place.

Kay Bell stayed on the offense and won first place in the A group, Walt Maich played a good match and earned second-place trophy, and Walt Dupont, new to the tournament, took third place.

The B group provided an exciting climax with a rousing response from the spectators as Sonia Hughes' winning shots demanded the first-place trophy. Vinny Raso put up a great challenge and received second place. Kathy Wirtz held the course. She was entitled to third place.

What happened, guys, is that the ladies took first place in all three groups.

The hospitality group planned a fantastic tournament dinner on Oct. 26, catered by Country Harvest restaurant.

Mark your calendars for the election of new board members at our meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 25, at 7:30 p.m. See you there!

L.V. Women's Golf Association

By Lillian Turnbull

Happy Thanksgiving to all! May this year bring you good health and plenty of good exercise.

Our November schedule starts with a Weekly Tournament on Nov. 5 and is followed with a Nov. 12 tournament, after which we will have our general meeting in the AR at 2 p.m. Be sure to come early, at 1:30 p.m., for refreshments and general milling and chatting.

Our next tournament will be Nov. 19 and our Wednesday, Nov. 26, tournament will be "Open Play" to accommodate all members who will be traveling to or from relatives on Thanksgiving Day, which is Thursday, Nov. 27.

We invite all new residents to join our Golf Club. Enjoy the camaraderie and the challenge, along with our beautiful weather on our green, green golf course.

Again, Happy Thanksgiving from us to you!

Racquet Club

By Anne Wolfson

The Racquet Club meets the second Wednesday of the month in the Multi-Purpose Room. We are a very active group of tennis, paddle tennis and table tennis players and welcome all Villagers to join us!

Because of the Jewish Holiday, our October meeting was canceled, but we are looking forward to our November meeting. Our guest speaker will be Kira Partridge from the Camarillo Health Care District, who will speak on "Health Care For Seniors." I'm sure this will be very interesting, and you won't want to miss it! Wednesday, Nov. 12, is the date, 7:30 p.m. is the time, so put it on your calendar now.

As usual, delicious refreshments will be on hand to satisfy your sweet tooth. See you there!

GRIEF CAN BE OVERWHELMING...

WE CAN HELP.

We are a volunteer hospice and grief support center, dedicated to the dignity of life by providing free care, comfort and support to individuals and families facing a life-threatening illness and/or dealing with grief. We offer a variety of services, including in-home volunteer assistance to patient and caregiver; loss and grief counseling for adults, children and families; bereavement support groups; and helpful information and referrals.

Who's helping you manage your portfolio?

Consider the advantages of professional investment management.

If you're like many investors, you may invest without a clear investment strategy. In today's complex marketplace, this could be costing you money—or exposing your portfolio to undue risks. That's why we offer professional investment management to investors with typically a $100,000 minimum account size.

The features can include

- Defined investment objectives
- Extensive investment manager search
- Quarterly portfolio review
- Comprehensive services within a fee-based structure, including full-time portfolio management learning a new computer program or taking music lessons.

There are also simple exercises that don't require a book, computer or even pen and paper.

Try this: While waiting in line at the bank, count to 100 by factors of three. If that's too easy, then go backward. Run through the multiplication and division tables in your head.

Had your fill of math? Then move on to language. Say the alphabet back-

Gratitude

Absence of gratitude is the mark of the narrow, uneducated mind.
It bespeaks a lack of knowledge and the ignorance of self-sufficiency.
It expresses itself in ugly egotism and frequently in wanton mischief.

—Gordon B. Hinckley—

A few of the many things we are grateful for:

Great country to live and work.

Beautiful city and county to reside.

Family and Friends.

A wonderful business which provides us the opportunity to serve many people.

We wish you a happy and enjoyable Holiday Season!!
