ELECTORAL COLLEGES OF THE UNITED STATES

THIRTY-NINTH PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION

MAYFLOWER HOTEL
Washington, D. C.
January 10, 1941

Mr. Elmer E. Lore,
6304 Radford Avenue,
North Hollywood, California.

Dear Elector:-

We desire to call your attention to the fact that invitation was sent to you for the meeting and dinner of the Presidential Electors of the United States at the Hotel Mayflower on Sunday evening, January 19, at 7 o'clock, in connection with the Inauguration of Franklin D. Roosevelt, as President, and Henry A. Wallace, as Vice-President. This promises to be an outstanding event and the presence of every Elector is desired. On January 20, the following day, the Electors will have special seats on the Inaugural stand to witness the Inaugural Ceremonies including the address of the President.

On Monday afternoon, January 20, at 4:45 o'clock P.M., the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will receive the Electors in the White House with the Governors of the States. Subsequently they will be the guests at tea at the White House. The wives of the Electors will be invited to this tea. The reception, however, is exclusively for the Electors. This unusual mark of distinction by the President of the United States should be accepted by every Presidential Elector and it is requested that you advise if you can be present at the dinner - Inaugural proceedings - and White House reception. The cost of the dinner is $10 per plate.

Please telegraph me AT ONCE whether you can come or not as reservations are being held for you. In due deference to the President immediate response is required so that all the necessary arrangements and details may be made.

Telegraph MICHAEL FRANCIS DOYLE, CHAIRMAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS COMMITTEE, HOTEL MAYFLOWER, WASHINGTON, D. C.

Very sincerely yours,

Michael Francis Doyle
