Commissioner Barron proposed approving the VCCW membership in the Ventura Reproductive Rights Network. Commissioner Phillips stated that because the Standing defining the Treasurer's duties state that the "treasurer shall pay dues to organizations VCCW is a member of, including ACCW, NACW, RRN", a motion to approve membership each year was not required. Commissioner Goodrow and Barron moved that VCCW pay a membership fee of $25 because VCCW is a non-paying member. The motion passed. Commissioner Barrow volunteered to serve as Alternate Representative to RRN. The VCCW Representative is Commissioner Goodrow.

REPRODUCTIVE RIGHTS NETWORK

Commissioner Barron stated that California voters have overwhelmingly opposed the past Parental Notification initiatives due to their concern about the health and safety of girls and women. For the same reason she proposed that VCCW state their opposition to this initiative. Commissioner Morgan-Durisseau stated that she had concerns about this issue and requested that it be tabled to the June meeting. Commissioner Phillips suggest that a resolution be considered so that the VCCW so that the VCCW position would be clearly stated. Commissioner Pallant reminded Commissioners discussed the need for VCCW to develop policies and procedures that will define its relationship with the Women's Forum and other VCCW projects. These procedures will clarify the governance issue and provide guidelines for running our Steering Committee. These should also be general rules guiding VCCW when it takes on a project. The following Commissioners were appointed to the committee to develop these policies and procedures: Riggan, Goodrow, Lawrence, Phillips, Morgan-Durisseau, Hurd, and Barron. Commissioner Hurd proposed developing an organizational chart to help Commissioners

Commissioner Lawrence and Goodrow will work with Supervisor Bennett to recognize Commissioner Fargo's contribution to the empowerment of women in Ventura County. SPECIAL
REQUESTS

Commissioners discussed ~~conduction of~~ the Educational Justice Forum. The comments included: obtained newsletter outreach; rooms were easily accessible, good speakers, good contacts, everything worked well. Commissioner Phillips reported that of the 20 evaluations 18 recommended Poverty as the next forum topic and 10 recommended Health. Commissioner Phillips reported a net revenue of approximately $6,460. Commissioner Morgan-Durisseau recommended three ways to increase attendance. They are: 1) Create a speakers bureau to visit and speak to organizations; 2) Ask panelists to invite their contacts; and 3) Increase publicity including more media interviews. Commissioner Phillips said that Supervisor Long reported the event to the Board of Supervisors and commended the event for bringing groups of women together who did not know the others existed. Commissioner Goodrow asked if the Commissioners felt that all the work was worth the results. She said 130 people attended and asked, "Shall we do it again?"

assist Commissioner Pallant with the presentation. Commissioner Phillips will email the last year's power point presentation to Commissioner Guizar. Planning for the event is to begin at the June meeting.

Commissioners discussed the nomination procedures defined in the VCCW Bylaws. At a meeting in June prior to the Regular VCCW meeting each district is to select their representative to the Executive Committee. That person will serve a term of one year. From that group officers for the coming year are elected.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE NOMINATION

Commissioner Goodrow invited members to attend the ACCW quarterly meeting on May 9 at the Manhattan Country Club. Commissioner Morgan-Durisseau agreed to attend with Commissioner Goodrow.

ACCW QUARTERLY MEETING

Commissioner Goodrow said that because VCCW falls under the Brown Act it was very important that the County provide her with training that would allow her to serve legally in her position as Commissioner. Commissioner Phillips said the Supervisor Long's office had provided her with a contact to advise VCCW on the Brown Act and AB1234 Ethics Legislation. Commissioner Morgan-Durisseau said that more than guidance was needed and she also wanted County training. She said that she would follow up with the contact. Use of email correspondence and past criticisms were stated as issues of great concern. The Commissioners agreed to remove the names of the Advisory Board from the stationary as there is no Advisory Board at this time. They agreed to change the Governing Board title in the Stationary. Commissioners Phillips and Lawrence stated that when they e-mailed the agenda and notice of the meetings in the past, they were sent to the Board of Supervisors and to an assistant in each office to be posted. Commissioner Phillips interpreted the Brown Act to require that the agenda be sent to members of the public who make their request known in writing on an annual basis. Because neither direction is in the Bylaws nor in the Standing Rules the Posting policy will be brought to the Bylaws/Standing Rules Committee.

BROWN ACT
TRAINING REQUESTED

Commissioners asked that the following be included in the ~~April~~ <sup>June</sup> Agenda: 1) Communication (email) Guidelines (Commissioner Phillips, Morgan-Durisseau); 2) Advisory Board protocol revision to the Standing Rules; 3) Brown Act Training; 4) Executive Committee Nominations; 5) Board of Supervisors' Report; 6) Commissioner Fargo Recognition; 7) Committee Report on Bylaws & Standing Rules; 8) Oppose Parental Notification 2008 Initiative; 9) VCCW Retreat Planning.
