Meeting called to order: 6:45 p.m.

Attendee's: Page Schindler, Catherine Smith, Bill Armbrust, Letha Marshall, Jodell and Celeste.

VCRRN Business:

Treasurer, Catherine Smith verified that the network currently has $3,176.67. Costs for writing event are yet to be determined.

Write for your Rights Event: On August 27th, at the Unitarian Church in Ventura was a great success. We received 500 letters, 47 hand written letters and 16 post cards. The Unitarian Church had a separate event and forwarded an additional 137 letters. Combining all the events together with Santa Barbara PP there were 2042 letters sent.

No on prop. 73 campaign: VOLUNTEER'S NEEDED

Phone banking will be scheduled at Ventura and Santa Barbara Planned Parenthood on Wednesday's between 5:30 and 7:30pm (not on Yom Kippur eve). The volunteers will be trained to establish who will vote no. Calls will be targeted to Independent and Decline to state registered voters. For those who will vote yes, get out the vote efforts will follow.

We discussed trying to get phone banking scheduled for Thursday nights at the Thousand Oaks Clinic. Contact Page for scheduling.

Community Forum/Clergy for Choice:

Is looking for co-sponsors for a No of 73 event with a speaker and a panel.
Details of event i.e. date, time and location will follow.

New and follow up business:

We need more endorsements for the Campaign for Teen Safety.

Roe v. Wade event is coming up. Braining storming to commence at next VCRRN meeting.

Women's Summit event: Next meeting September 13th.

Next VCRRN meeting: October 4, 2005
