

Editor's Corner

Leisure Village is a great reflection of the human spirit. It is attractive and well-run, with more activities than any one individual can possibly engage. All of this wonderful living atmosphere is the result of mostly resident volunteer efforts. The members of the Board of Directors, chairs of the standing committees, members of the committees and all of the club officers are volunteers, giving their time and energy to make this community a great place to live.

Inside Leisure Village is written and assembled by volunteers as well. From written articles, photography and editing, all are accomplished by people interested in informing the community about what is happening in our environment. While we have a very competent staff, we are very thin on backup, should circumstances preclude participation by any one member. Have you worked with a community newspaper in a previous residence? Do you have experience in journalism? ILV is looking for volunteers to write, edit and participate in ensuring Inside Leisure Village a sought after publication. Come, join us!

Beware of Unscrupulous Contractors

By Tim Palmer

Something we don't usually worry about is the fairness of service providers to price their work and products reasonably and honestly. Recently, however, one of our residents encountered a nightmare situation that awakened her to a problem that is more prevalent than we would like to believe! Her problem began with an odor emanating from her kitchen sink. Because the plumbing contractor she normally relies upon was not available to answer her call, she called a contractor that is known in the area and advertises extensively in Camarillo. It seemed to be the best way to resolve the odor problem.

When the technicians arrived at her home and were advised to the nature of the problem, they immediately determined that the odor was being caused by plugged drain lines connecting the house to the main sewer line at the street (they did not look under the kitchen sink at any time).

Please See Page 9

A simple problem under the sink, as shown at left, can turn into an expensive repair if one is not contractor aware.

LV Resident Defines the Art of Volunteering

By Patty Ecker

If you look into the Lanai Room on Fridays, you'll see Patti Crichton helping Villagers with their art projects. Stop by the golf course on Wednesdays to watch her set up a tee shot after making notes about publicity for the Women's Golf Club. At home she's on the phone lining up speakers and teachers for the Village Arts Club. Tired, yet?

Eight years ago, Patti moved from Canada to Leisure Village to begin her retirement. She'd worked her whole adult life, primarily as a first grade teacher and librarian in the small town of Orillia, Ontario. During that time, she had visited friends in Leisure Village, and she recalls, "The wonderful weather was huge," she says in her decision to relocate. But the move here seemed like a sea change. "At first, I was alone, wondering what I could do with all this time," she recalls.

Her neighbor provided an answer. "Gwen Zimring invited me to a meeting of the Village Arts group. I'd never painted, but I went anyway," Patti explains. "That got me moving." She started with watercolor and hasn't stopped since. She's currently Vice President of the group. "It's amazing how much time she gives," says Club President David Kiefer. "It's fun, a good way to meet

Good News from my "Unpleasantness"

By Ted Lansing

I had a very unpleasant time recently. The medical details are unimportant. What is important is the marvelous opportunity available to all residents of Leisure Village, from which I benefitted. I needed a walker for a short time, and I borrowed one from a terrific Village service. It's our own version of "The Collection."

The Recreation Office has a storage area filled with medical devices – like the walker I used – donated from residents who didn't need them anymore and available to residents who do. The collection includes wheel chairs, plain walkers, crutches, and, of course, canes. There are adult "potty" chairs and shower stools. There is also a playpen and a small stroller. There may be other "odd" items I do not know about. Ask! A deposit - a check to LVA for $100 - is required to get one of the wheel chairs or a walker with a seat. Everything else is loaned out on the "honor" system.

My neighbor, who just recovered from surgery that required her to use a wheelchair, was baffled as to what to do with the nearly new device she had. When I returned my walker, that wheel chair went with it into the Recreation Office Collection. Information and distribution are available in the Rec Office during regular hours. If an urgent need develops on weekends and holidays, Security Officers can help out.

A Welcome Mat for Hummingbirds and Butterflies

Leisure Village is an oasis – a sanctuary – for nectar-feeding species of hummingbirds and butterflies. Across LV’s 440 acres, certain trees and ornamental plants that are natural sources of nutrients grow within the greenbelts and landscaped common areas attracting and supporting these beautiful and colorful airborne neighbors. Residents can encourage them, too, with appropriate hummingbird feeders and plants in residential gardens that offer the nectar to which they are drawn.

Village rules help, too. Birdseed feeders are prohibited within the Village. Putting pet food or table scraps outside, even if it is for your dog or cat, is also banned because scattered seed and scraps attract unwelcome wild animals such as rats, squirrels, raccoons and coyotes. Those regulations offer protection for residents and for hummingbirds and butterflies.

Homeowners also can encourage hummingbirds and butterflies by selecting nectar-rich plants for their red stake residential garden beds or swapping out these plants in their full maintenance beds (at their own cost with a Landscape Permit). LVA’s 2016 Full Maintenance Plant List (available free in the LVA office and online) provides many choices. Folks that have an LVA reserved Farmer’s Garden patch can also become keen on seasonal edible crop and vegetable pollinators. Tree species are NOT allowed in residential landscaped beds.

Villager Jerry Sortomme, Chair of the Residential Landscape Committee, says the Committee can help interested residents. There are lots of choices, he says, “We suggest the Sunset Western Garden Book – 2012 edition, pages 95-97 and 101-103. Or our own Plant List that has more than a dozen nectar-producing plants to choose from.”

Next step: get out your camera and enjoy the show.

REAL ESTATE

Understanding Reverse Mortgages

By Sharron Parker

A reverse mortgage is a special type of loan that allows a homeowner to convert a portion of the equity in their home into cash. It eliminates monthly mortgage payments without losing the title to the home. No repayment is required until the borrower(s) no longer live in the house as the principal residence. The loan is paid back when the senior moves out of the home, sells it, the last borrower on title passes away or when the borrower fails to meet the obligations of the loan.

In order to qualify for a reverse mortgage, seniors must be 62 or older and own a home with sufficient equity that they live in as their primary residence.

If the homeowner has a mortgage that's ok -- it can be paid off with the reverse mortgagee proceeds. The senior must continue to pay required property taxes, homeowner association fee if relevant and homeowner insurance.

The amount that can be received depends on the homeowner's age, current interest rates, and the lesser of the appraised value of the home, the sale price, or the maximum lending limit. There are closing and other costs, most of which can be financed as part of the loan.

Once any existing mortgage is paid off, the net proceeds from a reverse mortgage can be used for any purpose, from making ends meet to living your retirement dreams.

Summer Concert Hits All the Right Notes

people," she adds. "I'm glad I got the nudge."

She also got nudged into playing golf, another activity she never tried before Leisure Village. Her partner John Palmer, a golfer himself, got her started. Now Patti admits she's "pretty good," plays every week, and – no surprise - is active in the Women's Golf Club. Last year she won the President's Cup and Club Chamampionship for nine-hole golfers.

Patti estimates she spends about ten hours a week working on various Village projects. John laughs as he corrects the record, "She spends most days as a Village volunteer." Patti interrupts, "Everyone has to pitch in or we wouldn't have the clubs and activities that are here. I'm thrilled at the opportunities. We make good friends. We learn things we never knew before." Then she giggles, "It's good to have some structure in our old age."

They stated that if she did not utilize their services to clean out the drains, at a cost of almost $4,000, it would be possible that she would fix the lines at a later date. Being totally intimidated by the potential of costly repairs in the future, our neighbor chose to employ their services.

In the ensuing weeks, the sink odor did not cease in any way. Finally, after several evaluations, her licensed handyman correctly determined the odor source (the trap under the sink) and, for about $200, made the appropriate repairs.

Fortunately, our neighbor realized that the previous plumbing contractor had used scare tactics to entice her into using their services. Before taking the plumbing contractor to task, she contacted the Leisure Village Association front office and was reassured that any drain-line maintenance from the house to the street was the responsibility of the Association, not the homeowner. Armed with that information, she challenged the plumbing company's charges and, after some intense negotiating, was refunded her money.

Village's Fourth of July Party was held Tuesday, on July 3. The annual event featured food – hot dogs and all the trimmings – and entertainment, "The Sweethearts" singing U.S.O. favorites.

This owner's experience identifies a critical point: unless your situation is an emergency, obtain two detailed estimates with specific diagnosis of the problem and estimates of the material and labor costs. While many household problems are a mystery to the average person, usually someone can be identified in the Village that can assist in assessing the gravity of the situation and recommend a course of action. In doing so, they are giving you valuable information that will assist in identifying whether the estimates from the contractors are legitimate or just separating you from your hard-earned money.

Every day we receive unsolicited calls trying to entice us to purchase some product or steal some of our personal information that can be used to scam us out of our money. Fortunately, there is an abundance of information available about scams how to deal with them. This information should be of assistance in dealing with subtle efforts to overcharge you.

CLUB IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Bocce Club Keeps on Rolling

By Patrick Moore

Similar to its first cousin, lawn bowling, bocce ball is played in teams of one to four players. The object is to roll soft-ball sized hard balls -- made of white pine or one of various plastics -- along the length of a court in the direction of an object ball called the jack. One might think of bocce ball as marbles with a glandular condition.

In any case, Cela Foster, Club president, believes bocce to be the most fun game one can enjoy in the village. "It's not a hard game to learn and everyone (in the club) is very accommodating and will show you how to play," she said, by way of an invite to all potential players. The club maintains bocce ball sets, so participants do not even have to provide their own equipment to play. Club members play the game Monday and Thursday mornings at 10:00 a.m. That's when members gather at the LV bocce courts located adjacent to the picnic area, behind the ham radio shack. Foster said the courts are about two years old, completely refurbished, and, "we finally got them smoothed out and with new (side) boards and they play perfectly".

There is no charge to club members except for an optional $3 fee each year to cover catering costs for the club's annual picnic, and that charge is only for those who wish to attend the event, Foster said. Most club members, numbering about 18 active players at present, generally play shuffle board as well. "So, when it rains," Foster said, "and we can't play bocce, we just shift over to the shuffleboard courts."

Four courts and plenty of bocce balls to loan for all comers. Key to bocce - take dead aim!

There are four bocce ball courts, so that with two-player teams, up to 16 contestants can bowl at the same time.

"Sometimes people just wander by and we show them how to play and they are better than us at it," Foster said.

Although bocce is played by millions in this country, it is unlikely you'll see the game immortalized on PBS ... or is it? By gum, Ken Burns did a short, rather raw Bocce special, he did. Really. It's on YouTube. You could Google it.

CLUB NEWS

BILLIARDS CLUB

By Patrick Price

Good news! As I'm writing this, we have found volunteers for the Billiards Club Board. Laura Ingersoll will be taking over as Treasurer and Joe Feig is thinking about becoming Secretary. Both are new members. Thank you to Chris Bogdan, our outgoing Treasurer, for taking care of the job. Nominations for board officers for next year will take place in September. The nominating committee is out scouting for candidates. The Billiards Club and associated activities don't happen without volunteers.

Reminder, the September pizza party has been cancelled. The fire-pit on the Billiards Room patio is ready for our get-togethers after the Thursday night Round Robin and LCR. The Round Robins and LCR on Thursday evenings are in full swing. Be there about 6:00 p.m. to sign-up and help setup LCR. The Billiards Club is asking for contributions of soft drinks, wine, beer and snacks for these evenings. The weather is getting great for some fire-pit/patio fun on Thursday nights.

We have a good time every week and it's worth the time to get involved. Come, try it out. If you are returning or new to the league, we are having signups on August 9 at 9:00 – 11:00 a.m. in the Lanai Room. I hope to see you there. Any questions, call Alan Ten-Pin Singer at 805-987-7896.

We are continuing to bowl for fun on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Harley's Bowl. Come for fun or to get ready to join the fall league in August. New bowlers are welcome. We will help you get started. The league is designed so that everyone has a chance to win by adjusting the handicap. Don't feel that you would not be able to compete. If your average is 100, your handicap would be 100. If your average is 150, your handicap would be 50. So both bowlers are equal with a score of 200. I'm looking forward to meeting you on August 9 or sooner at Harley's.

COUNTRY WESTERN DANCE

By Merle Ruiz

If you missed our return in June, you missed a great reunion dance. All is not lost - get those boots out of the closet because, lucky for you, we'll dance again on August 31 at 7:00 p.m. in the AR. Cost is $7 with coffee/water provided. The dance lesson will be "Rebel's Kick" - a really fun dance with great music. Are you new to line dancing? Check out the Fundamentals of Line Dance

Class in this issue. If you have any questions - give Merle a call at 805-444-5225.

Fundamentals of Line Dance Class - we are moving! This beginning line dance class is moving to Friday. August 3, 1:00-2:00 p.m. in the AR. Each week we will be building on what you have learned. The goal will be to learn a new dance each of the first three weeks, with a review on the fourth week. Come learn "The Language of Dance." It will release your inner joy. Questions - give Merle a call at 805-444-5225.

IN OTHER WORDS

By Frank Seiden

We look forward to seeing our writing, discussing friends on the 8th and 22nd of August in the Lanai Room at 2:00 p.m. The topics we will present are on writing about little things in life that stick out in our minds and on telling a story in dialog. Very often we remember little things that don't seem important in themselves, but they show themselves as part of a picture and are, in themselves, worth a smile or even a chuckle. Writing in dialog allows presenting characters of participants in the way they express themselves. Add a little body language, and the characters come to life in the reader's mind.

MEN'S GOLF

By Joseph Benti

Aside from noting two holes-in-one: Richard Parker and Jeff Marguiles (more cake for my men), the main issue under discussion was the Members' sense that more "outside" and "unaccompanied" players are making a mockery of what is seen by many to be the unenforced "Members (and accompanied guests) Only" rule for anybody who plays our course.

Members were strongly advised to avoid personal confrontations with those suspected of being on the course in violation of the rules. Veteran members noted that suggestions to "call Security" rarely seem to get a response or results. We were reminded by former Board Member Don Marquardt that the main job of security, beyond manning the gates and policing traffic, is to "save lives." In Marquardt's words, "They do that magnificently." President Sarno and Member Ross Edmonds will work on a proposal of possible solutions to the issue which they will present to the Ed & Rec Committee with the objective of preserving the integrity of our course for use and enjoyment by all "Residents & their Guests."

Finally, Club members are now allowed the choice of putting or not while flags are still in the cups. The move is in advance of a USGA rule change effective 2019 to help "speed up the game."

THE MAVERICKS

By Margo Secia

On Friday, August 24 at 7:00 p.m. in the AR, Merle Ruiz will host the Mavericks' "Fashion Show (Thrift Store Style)". All the men and women models will be wearing great outfits costing $20 or less purchased from local Thrift Stores. This is a very popular event so purchase your tickets early for $7 per person, by calling President John Wirtz at 384-8508 or Geri DeSimone at 402-1465. We hope everyone will come to enjoy the fashions and join their friends to share cheese, crackers, fruit and cookies. Wine, beer, coffee and water will be available and, as always, you may BYOB. Music will be provided for your listening and dancing pleasure. You won't want to miss this very entertaining show, so come join in all the fun!

PET CLUB

By Ruth Stubba

It was nice to see several grandchildren, along with many adults, enjoying the live raptor bird show at our July event. The kids asked great questions! And after the show, we all got to pet the owls. Wings of Discovery owner Stephanie Sayre, a certified master falconer, gave a wonderful presentation that included personal stories of how she found her first two raptors, fulfilling the requirements of becoming a falconer.

Coming up on Monday, August 13 is our Pet Health Expo in the Pavilion at 6:00 p.m. This annual event features Ventura County Animal Services (Camarillo Shelter) on-site providing FREE rabies vaccinations, FREE micro chipping and FREE dog licensing. Other vaccinations will be available for $10. Dogs of valuable prizes. Raffle proceeds go to Camarillo Shelter and Moorpark College Zoo. The Expo is open to everyone in Leisure Village.

PADDLE TENNIS

By Georganne Norton, Village 20

*I've found a new passion that I like to do.
It's called Paddle Tennis, and for many, it's new.
Played on a shorter court than the tennis I love,
I often wish a good shot came from "above."*

Alas, the well-placed shots must come from me. Self-reliant is what I have to be! But a good partner helps us both look good, So we don't embarrass the LV neighborhood.

It's a great group of people who show up to play. I look forward to seeing them, whatever the day. Winning is, of course, what we all want to do, But it's the companionship that is really the glue.

Love of the game surely binds us together. We're not overly concerned about hot or cool weather. Time with Racquet Club friends just makes my day. With that thought expressed, what more can I say?

Wii-Bowling members had their General Meeting, Potluck Lunch, and Red, White & Blue Tournament in the Santa Rosa Room on July 14.

A Moment of Silence was held for Joan Levy, our past president, who held the presidency for many years and passed away this year. After the meeting and delicious fried chicken luncheon, with luscious salads, chips and dips, and yummy desserts, the members formed six teams. The teams were made-up of people who normally played on different days and times, so they could get to know each other and experience how they played.

The two top bowlers who won trophies were: Diane Hawrylo, who scored 258, and Rei Sugita, who scored 223.

The top team who won was "Blue 2" whose score was 809, and was made up of the following players: Rei Sugita-223; Patricia Walsh-182, Helen Hartman-190, Cathy Friedman-207, with a team handicap of six.

members are available every Tuesday and Wednesday between 10:00 a.m. and 12:00 noon to repair most wood items for Villagers. We gratefully accept donations to help defray the cost of normal materials and supplies. In that light, the Woodshop will be holding its Annual Yard Sale on October 20th, this year and will gladly accept tools and other materials as donations to this worthy cause. Please contact project coordinator Bob Zarit at rmzarit3@yahoo.com for any questions or clarifications.

Through June 2018, the completed Jobs are as follows:

- Resident Projects 134
- LV/Club projects 25
- Quickie projects 26

The Annex is set up with basic power tools and continues to add and update equipment and supplies. If you are a skilled crafts-person and can demonstrate those skills, you can gain access to more complex tools and equipment in the Main Wood Shop. We added "Alexa" to the staff of the Woodshop for the keyholders. Come by and meet her. A reminder to current keyholders: if you have completed a project that you would like to highlight, we will post a photo of it on the bulletin board outside the shop. Email your photo to Bud Bradley at Hipbud2@gmail.com, or bring a photo to the woodshop Tuesday or Wednesday a.m.

Tasting Ellen's Chopped Liver, one of the benefits of the job.

“What am I, Chopped Liver?”

By Larry Swartz

My friend John asked me recently where did I think this expression came from. Well, I wouldn't say I did a lot of chopped liver research as that would indicate I have time on my hands, but it did pique my interest so I did the research. Here are various explanations to:

(A) Chopped liver is usually a side dish, not a main dish and someone using this phrase may think you are making them feel less important, i.e. like a side dish!

(B) Some people don't even use the liver and heart from a chicken but cook them for their dog. Have you made someone feel like a dog recently?

(C) My explanation is that chopped liver is chopped liver and eggs, and is...brown... and mushy and many people scrunch up their face when you just say the word liver; so making someone feel like a gob of mashed brown chicken organs may not be the best way to make a new friend. But, this leads me to Village 40 where Google says chopped liver originated (yea, right). It may not have originated there but it sure as heck tastes good there. That's where I was yesterday, invited by Ellen, to visit and taste her chopped liver.

Like many creative & brilliant souls (think Ruth Bader Ginsberg), Ellen was born in Brooklyn, which might account for her statement about her and her brother. When they were kids, they would steal raw seasoned hamburger meat from her mother while she was prepping meat balls and spaghetti and eat it raw... long before the words “steak tartar” even passed through her lips. Ellen gained lots of cooking experience when she was in the Peace Corps in the 60's; she is a person of many talents. Her recently published book “A Flawed Promise” just came out and is available on Amazon & Barnes and Noble. And yes, writing a book was a helluva lot harder than making chopped liver.

Since neither Ellen nor I are very good at following recipes, here is a spontaneous one for

Ellen's Chopped Liver

1. Hard boil six eggs and peel.
2. In a large frying pan melt one stick of butter. Add and sauté one good sized chopped onion with one pound of drained chicken livers, until the onions are soft and the livers are thoroughly cooked.
3. Chop liver, onions and eggs in a wooden bowl moistening the mixture with the melted butter from the frying pan.
4. Add salt to your taste because you may be the only one eating it!!! (Although Bud, who was supposed to be just the photographer, NOT the taster, liked the taste a lot)
5. Serve on crackers or a slice of really good Jewish rye. And in the future, watch your tongue -wait, that's next month's topic!

LV TRAVEL

Upcoming Months Offer Travel Packages Galore

By Carol Moody

Last month, I encouraged residents to save the date for our Riverside Mission Inn trip. Well, the date changed slightly; it is now Sunday, December 2, and the trip is up for sale. The tour includes a late lunch, a guided tour of the historic Inn, and hanging around for the stupendous festive holiday light show.

If you want more holiday lights, join us as we travel up the coast to Cambria on December 9-11 to experience the joys of Cambria (and in my opinion the best holiday lights in the state) and Hearst Castle after dark. This trip is a joint venture with Friends of Camarillo Library.

Holiday lights not your style? How about a relaxing getaway to the Queen Mary and Catalina November 12-15. Personally, I cannot think of a better way to start a stress free holiday season.

Don't worry if you missed the presentation last month for our Springtime River Cruise through Holland and Belgium departing April 4, 2019. You can still get the details and/or sign up by stopping by the Travel Window, just do not wait too long or you may end up on a standby list. The next Travel presentation will be on August 30 and will feature our 2019 Panama Tour.

There may be a few spots left for our wine tasting event on September 13, so stop by if interested. We also added a trip to Zion National Park, Valley of Fire State Park, Cedar Breaks, and Las Vegas on Sept. 23-27, 2018. We share in this tour with a number of senior groups, so it is a great way to meet new people. We are working on our 2019 calendar now, so if you have a suggestion please stop by and see us at the LV Travel Window. The window is open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday 9:00- 11:45 a.m.
